A City Water Bond Election Looms On Winter Horizon ?

WATER RATES RAISED ONCE A YEAR TO REPAY BOND SCHEDULE AS THEY ARE SOLD

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Impossible To Generate Funds Through Earnings; Limit On Fund Transfers To Other Accounts Asked

★ ★ ★ ★

Committee Further Studies Bond Amounts Needed

By R. Robert Evans

After the failure of the $2.1-million bond issue on June 10, for the purpose of repairing and bringing up to standards our water system, the City Council threatened to raise the water rates of our city 63 per cent in an attempt to raise sufficient monies to make immediate and needed repairs to our water system.

Several learned men, in the field of water, challenged the Council on the water rate increase and asked for a complete investigation of the need of the repairs, the expenditures and transfers from the water fund. On August 10 the Council condoned, and Mayor Ralph R. Rule appointed "water advisory committee to the mayor" to make a complete investigation and report back on an interim basis.

Robert Shapiro, Kenneth Wilkerson, Arthur Juhl, Donald Schneider, Dr. Leonard Chandra, James Andrews and Blair Painter were appointed to that committee and given the full power to examine all records and meet with staff who would furnish any and all information required by the working committee.

At the Council meeting of Thursday, September 30, the committee, represented by Kenneth Wilkerson, and narrated by Arthur Juhl, made their preliminary report.

The Committee agreed that the Council was right in calling for the bond issue in June, but did not necessarily agree with the amount of the issue. A new Bond Election is recommended, and will probably be presented to the Electorate sometime in January or February of 1972.

The full text of their preliminary report follows for your review, thinking and for future comments:

WATER ADVISORY COMMITTEE REPORT

Honorable Mayor and members of the City Council:

Acting as the Water Advisory Committee to the Mayor, we have reviewed various water system studies, city financial statements and had meetings with the City Administrator and Staff. As a result of these activities, we now make the following preliminary recommendations to you.

1. A bond issue should be presented to the voters of Sierra Madre to cover certain

Postcard Drawing For Rose Bowl Football Tickets

A post card drawing for 3,500 tickets to the 1972 Rose Bowl football game in Pasadena will be conducted later this month by the Pacific 8 Conference and Tournament of Roses.

Persons interested in entering have until October 15 to send a card containing name and mailing address to "Rose Bowl, Box 1800, Pasadena, California 91109."

The Pacific-8 Conference champion and Big 10 representative will be meeting in the 58th renewal of the famed classic on January 1, 1972.

The card may be mailed from any post office. Letters are not acceptable and no money should be sent until requested.

"This will be the only public sale of tickets, said Tournament President Virgil J. White. "The conference schools distribute the remaining tickets to our New Year's Day game."

Shortly after the October 15 deadline, 1,750 cards will be drawn with each "winner" entitled to purchase two tickets after receiving an application from the Tournament.

ROGER WALKER

President of Chamber of Commerce

Challenges Mayor Rule!

by R. Robert Evans

At the start of the Council meeting held on Thursday, September 30, Mayor Ralph R. Rule announced, that due to the transfer of Charles Corp to the City Council, and the resignation of Wes Anderson from the Planning Commission, he had two vacancies to fill. He further recommended that Andrew Roy Buchan be transferred from the Zoning Board of Appeals to the Planning Commission, he being a Civil Engineer with Los Angeles County, and that Everett Regel, Supervisor of the Broadway Stores be appointed to fill the remaining vacancy.

Since this left a vacancy on the Zoning Board of Appeal, Mayor Rule recommended that John Ferdinando, right-of-way agent for the Edison Company be given that position. The Council accepted the recommendations and by a unanimous vote appointed the three men to fill the vacancies.

Being late for the opening of the meeting, Roger Walker, president of the Chamber of Commerce asked for audience during the New Business Session, and was granted same.

Roger Walker: "Honorable Mayor, I find that you have filled the vacancies on the Commissions before I arrived, I am sorry, I wanted to discuss this matter. May I ask, how many businessmen of Sierra Madre are on the Commissions or the City Council"?

Mayor Rule, after some hesitation: "I do not believe there are any."

Whereupon, President Walker challenged the Mayor as to "WHY."

Mayor Rule made the

Senior Citizens Met On Oct. 2

On Saturday, October 2, at 11:30 a.m. the meeting of the Senior Citizens Club was called to order by the president, Mr. Louis Van Iersel, who welcomed the 28 members present.

After repeating the Lord's Prayer and the pledge of allegiance to the flag, the group sang "America," and "The More We Get Together," with Berniece Olson at the piano.

Flora Anderson was thanked for her beautiful bouquet of roses.

Ella Mourse and Bernice Olson were welcomed back after an absence of many weeks.

Pansy Hearn conducted the awarding of door prizes to Myra Hinkle, first; Roy Pickett, second, and Sally Hayes, third.

Pearl Patterson reported on trips scheduled, October 15, Disneyland; October 26 and 27, Monte Corona; November 1, Oak Glenn Valley; November 3, Knott's Berry Farm, and November 11, San Diego Zoo or Sea World.

The reading of the minutes was made and approved of the September 25 meeting. The treasuder re-

Barnhart School 'Open House'

On Wednesday, October 20th The Ethel Barnhart School will welcome parents and friends to Back To School Night. The evening's highlight will be a short period from 7 to 7:15 p.m. in which the teachers will explain the new and exciting materials involved in their pupils' education.

Mrs. Barbara Keith, school principal, will be on hand to discuss the many new and interesting ways the school is exposing children to learning.

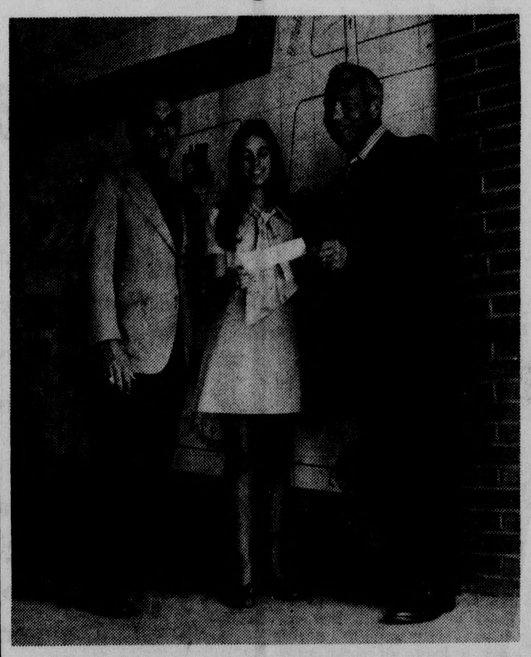

It should be an interesting evening with open classrooms after 7:15 available to visitors. Refreshments will be served in the school patio at 7:30 p.m. by the Mothers' Group of the school.

Float Riders To Be Chosen Soon

Saturday, October 9 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, Sierra Madre girls may register to compete in the contest to choose Float riders for the 1972 New Years Day parade.

All entrants must live in Sierra Madre and be between the ages of 14 and 18. Signups will be held in the Council Chambers of the Sierra Madre City Hall and will be repeated on October 16 from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

Arcadia Student Winner of Home Savings Scholarship

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER — Nancy Gay Tankersley, recent graduate of Arcadia High School, has been awarded a $500 scholarship by Home Savings and Loan Association. Congratulating her on the award are Principal Richard Cordáno and Mr. Buck Oney, manager of Home Savings' Arcadia branch.

Nancy Gay Tankersley, a recent graduate of Arcadia High School, has been named winner of a $500 scholarship in a statewide program sponsored by Home Savings and Loan Association. The sum, one of 76 identical honors given to California students of outstanding developmental potential by the nation's largest savings and loan, was accepted by Miss Tankersley from Mr. Buck Oney, Arcadia branch manager for the $3.8 billion firm.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Tankersley, Nancy has held positions as president of the American Field Service Club, secretary of the Arcadia Youth Commission and member of the school drill team. She plans to study mathematics at Principia College in Illinois.

The $38,000 student scholarship program is designed to encourage students to achieve a high scholastic standing, and to participate in extra-curricular activities which help develop leadership. The plan, honoring outstanding seniors in 76 schools, has been widely acclaimed by educators. Awards are granted irrespective of other scholarship funds or grants-in-aid won by recipients.

Mr. Robert Evans
Editor
Sierra Madre News
Sierra Madre, California

Dear Mr. Evans:

We believe too, if I may borrow from the heading of your September 16 editorial. Sierra Madre does have possibilities. It can improve its economic situation; it can make itself both more attractive and more functional and it can improve itself as an already fine environment in which to live.

But such will take time, and it will take a certain amount of money. In the communities I have worked in as a governmental planner and/or planning consultant, the most difficult task is convincing those involved that planning and its implementation does not occur instantaneously. It requires community devotion, courage, and more than anything else patience. Attention to each facet of development from zoning, to design, to construction, and ultimately maintenance must also be provided by staff and appointed and elected officials. It is an ongoing job with many frustrations, many set-backs. and ultimately many rewards as the quality of life improves.

Sierra Madre has a fine future, but one which will not happen automatically. This future must be invested in as any other business proposition. Dividends received will be better service, a finer place in which to live, and shop, and if truly successful, lower taxes.

We will soon be making recommendations to the citizens and the city which we believe are necessary to start a renewal era of community improvements. We look forward to your comments regarding same and your offering them to Sierra Madre through your fine newspaper. Only in such a manner, may meaningful dialogue on these important issues result.

As you, we will continue to believe.

Best regards,
Owen Menard

Editor's Note: — It is time that each of you become believers also.

SIDEWALK SALE TO BE TWO DAYS

Roger Walker, President of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, met with the City Council at their regular meeting of Thursday, September 30, on behalf of the merchants of the City of Sierra Madre.

President Walker requested from the Council that they grant the Merchants the right of holding a Sidewalk Sale for Friday and Saturday October 29 and 30.

It was noted by Mayor Rule that the merchants were asking for one additional day than they have previously requested. President Walker explained that due to the success of the last promotion it was the feeling of the merchants that they really needed more time to properly give full exposure to all prospective customers.

Council concurred in the request and granted the two days as requested.

City Officials Go North To Meeting

City officials deserted the City during the period of September 26 to the 29, while they attended the annual meeting of the California League of Cities in San Francisco.

Attending the three day convention were: Mayor Ralph R. Rule; Councilmen Gordon Rudolph, Robert Hartman, Charles Corp, James Abernethy; City Engineer, Barney Westkamper; City Administrator, Norman Boehm; Chief of Police, Tom Kendra; Planning Commission chairman, Harlan Pederson, and Parks and Recreation representative, Joe Grippi.

Vice Mayor Hartman was the Voting Delegate to the Convention, where lectures were held on Tax Reform, Court Decisions and many speeches made on better government.

Ten men attended the Convention, each man receiving a check from the City for $200, to be used as expenses on the trip, with deletion or additions made should it be necessary. This was a budgeted item for approximately $2,000, paid by the Taxpayers to give better education to its city officials that they will know what is transpiring and about to transpire, and thus can better direct the business of their city.

Weekly Calendar Of Events Channel 3

Premiering this week on TelePrompTer TV Cable 3 of Sierra Madre is a new citizen created series titled "Ecology Today."

The Youth Soccer "Game of the Week" series will premiere over Cable 3 on October 20 at 7 p.m.

Properties To Be Investigated

The City Council at its regular meeting of Thursday, September 30, requested that the Superintendent of Public Works be authorized to instigate investigation of the Chapter 99 on three different properties consisting of four buildings which are believed to be substandard.

The investigation will be held on 341 Auburn Avenue; 832 Woodland Drive; 241 Grove and a building on the same property known as 241½ Grove.

After the investigation the City Engineer will report back to the City Council and if found to be substandard and need of repair or demolition, the Council will then set a hearing and dispose of the matter as a Board of Rehabilitation as soon as possible.

-- Editorial --

By R. Robert Evans

I had a man and woman ask me a very personal question last week, and it really put me to thinking, and I mean real honest to goodness hard core thinking . . . they asked me, "What has happened to truthfulness in news reporting?" What they really wanted to know is . . . it used to be that the editors ferreted out and reported the news regardless of how bad it might hurt some people, but today, they ignore those things and why? . . .

In thinking this one out, I can tell you why . . . Loss of business is the reason, newspapers have actually given way to the monetary; they have actually GONE DEAD when it comes to really giving the people the news behind the news.

You take right here in little Ol' Sierra Madre, the way the Planning Commission has been treating the people is out of this world . . . They have no more feeling for the business section in our town than they have for New York City . . . To me it truthfuly seems as though they are a group of Engineers and Architects that are vieing back and forth to get their own particular ideas across and to hell with the general public . . . Well, I can tell you right now and here, this Newspaper and its Editor is not dead . . . But he sure as hell has been sick for quite some time, but this man and woman really gave me a bitter pill to swallow, and I feel some better today, and tomorrow . . . Who knows I may even get completely well.

But there are people in Sierra Madre, and some of them merchants, who fully believe that the people should not hear the truth . . . Just recently I was accused of ruining the business of Sierra Madre because I came out with the truth . . . isn't this really something . . . . Well I can tell you this, and I can tell it for sure . . . The people of Sierra Madre are no dummies, they know what the score is and I am sure that they are fairly well taking things into their own hands when it comes to where they spend their dollars, but here again, it is my thinking that those merchants, like myself may have been just a little bit sick; they too will gain their posture and get well again . . . I fully believe that Sierra Madre has hit the bottom, and is now on the way up . . . I have great faith in what I see around town in my travels, and I am doubly sure that within the next year you will see many a change in the old main street . . . . Just watch for it . . . . and in the meantime . . . I think it is time that Sierra Madreans should know a few facts about their community and the boys that think they are running it . . Is this what you want to hear . . . Just tell me so when you see me on the street!

Attention Merchants . . .

Notice anything different on Friday and Saturday of this past week? The streets were crowded with traffic. No place to park. The Grand Opening of Olde Century Lane was a grand success. This could be done every month of the year, but it takes merchandising and promotion. We will show you again on October 29th and 30th, but if you want "Your Fair Share" you will have to put forth just a little effort. It is entirely up to you.

New Name For Park?

The City Council, at its postponed regular meeting of Thursday, September 30, notified the City Attorney that they wished a Resolution prepared to present to them at their regular meeting of Tuesday, October 12 for the change in name of the now commonly known Mira Monte Park.

A suggestion was received from the Parks and Recreation Commission that the park be given the name of Mt. Wilson Trail Park, which would be more in keeping with the surroundings. The park is located at the end of Mountain Trail and extends to Mt. Wilson Trail Road. It is the area that was recently acquired by the city with a share in the costs by the State Parks and Recreation Commission when they purchased the house and land owned by Mr. Williams for a price of $17,500.

If no objections the Resolution will be presented and adopted at that meeting.

Friends of Local Library Present Film Series

The Friends of the Sierra Madre Library present the first in a series of films which are a cultural community service of the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County. These films will be shown at Sierra Mesa School on the second Monday of each month at 7:30 p.m. Admission to the entire series is free.

The first in the series will be shown this coming Monday, October 11. Present will be two outstanding color features:

"Continents Adrift." A detective story on a global scale which supports the theory that all of the earth's continents were once united in a single land mass, this entrancing color film examines the scientific evidence for the theory of continental drift.

"The Great Barrier Reef" brilliantly captures the fascinating underwater world of a unique ecosystem off the coast of Australia. The variety of fish and coral life on and around this reef are among the most colorful in the world. But the reef itself is threatened. The Crown of Thorns, a starfish that eats living coral, may ultimately destroy it.

Final Services Held For Mrs. Lucy Young

Prominent citizen, Mrs. Lucy Stanton Young, 76, 214 Olivera Lane passed away September 30, at the Methodist Hospital in Arcadia after a lengthy illness. A teacher at Monrovia and Arcadia High Schools, Mrs. Young originally came to California from New York some 66 years ago. She and her family have been residents of this community for the last 32 years. During this time, Mrs. Young has been active in community affairs including participation in and affiliation with the following: United Crusade (Residential Chairman 16 years); Board of Directors Campfire Girls for many years; Group leader, Campfire Girls, also for many years; the Sierra Madre PTA; Sierra Madre, and other garden clubs: the Arboretum District Garden Club; the Iris Society of Southern California; and the Whittier Gem and Mineral Society.

Survivors include: her husband, Mr. C. L. Young, of the Sierra Madre address; three daughters, Mrs. Phyllis McKinney of Los Angeles, Mrs. Sylvia Burns of Whittier, and Mrs. Joan Low of Carmel Valley; a brother, Frances Stanton of San Bernardino; and a sister, Mrs. Anna Hamm of Los Angeles. Also ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

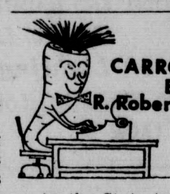

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m., Saturday afternoon, October 2 at Ripple Mortuary with the Rev. Dr. Fred Groetsema officiating. Inurnment was private at Rose Hills Memorial Park in Whittier.

Ripple Mortuary, Sierra Madre, was in charge of all arrangements.

Second Reading Of Ord. No. 878

At the meeting of the City Council held on Thursday, September 30, Ordinance No. 878 was given its second reading after which by motion was adopted and will become law on October 30, 1971.

This Ordinance concerns itself with a change in procedures as to delinquency date for water bills. After October 30, water bills do not become delinquent until after the 15th of the month following billing. Previously the delinquency was set at 25-days after the bill was rendered.

As the State trooper gently lifted the child's broken and lifeless body from the tangled wreckage of the automobile, he saw an empty liquor bottle, still miraculously intact, beneath the crumpled legs of the dying driver. To the experienced officer, the smell of the man's gasping breath left no doubt that a drinking driver was once again involved in a fatal traffic accident.

— CT —

Unfortunately, the above hypothetical scene is an all too familiar sight to law enforcement officers who patrol the streets and highways of our Nation. According to authorities responsible for traffic safety, drinking drivers cause accidents that kill 25,000 people in our country each year, are involved in 800,000 nonfatal crashes, and inflict property damages estimated in billions of dollars annually. There can be no plausible excuse for such senseless carnage.

— CT —

Could it be that traffic fatalities — like rising crime rates — are becoming so commonplace that the American public is growing insensitive to these tragedies and the conditions which cause them? . . . Regrettably, this is an instance where the right answer, a reluctant "yes," is the wrong answer.

— CT —

Apparently, there is no persuasion, short of certain stern punishment, that will keep the drinking driver from behind the steering wheel, and bringing him to justice is no easy matter. Law enforcement officials and prosecutors agree that charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol are the toughest traffic cases to prosecute. Some jurors apparently consider the violation to be an indescretion, not a crime — indeed, a derliction in which they themselves may occasionally indulge. In short, the public is unwilling to impose self-restraint and legal restrictions to control this problem.

— CT —

The question then is how long can the public conscience accept the mounting toll of human lives claimed in accidents caused by drunken drivers. Certainly, more than 25,000 lives annually is a tragic loss to chalk off to indifference. To virtually ignore drunken drivers is to condone them, and the depth of guilt becomes a common shame.

— CT —

I believe the problem of the drinking driver should be handled firmly. He should know that detection, prosecution, and punishment will be swift and certain. Whenever the circumstances warrant, lengthy revocation of licenses, maximum fines, and substantial jail sentences should be imposed upon offenders.

— CT —

The rights and safety of the motoring public should not be imperiled by selfish, irresponsible drivers who, while under the influence of alcohol, convert the automobile into a lethal weapon.

— CT —

As more 19-year-olds exercise their right to vote, they may begin to wonder about those social security "contributions" that are taken from them by law each month so that government can provide for their well-being nearly 50 years from now. They might well wonder about the thousands upon thousands of dollars of their earnings that they are told by politicians are to be put into some vague trust fund to help care for them in their old age. A lot can happen in 50 years. The rules can change. Inflation can wipe out the dollar. The "establishment," which helps to pay the taxes that keep the welfare state going, might succumb to the attacks of its adversaries and so on.

— CT —

Whatever happens, the 18-year-olds who are starting to vote now are destined to bear a substantial portion of the cost. As this fact begins to sink home, politicians could well find promises of a sweet life at the other fellow's expense — namely the younger generation — a mighty poor vote getter.

We had a very interesting and informative report from Congressman H. Allen Smith

Our thoughts and sympathies go out to Mrs. Ray (Lillian) Sage at the news of the passing of her sister, Mrs. Jeanie Cook of Seminole, Oklahoma, last Monday morning, September 27. Mrs. Cook's demise leaves only Lillian and a brother, Percy Anderson of Shawnee, Oklahoma rmaining of ten children. Her survivors, in addition to her sister and brother, include three sons, Karl Pfleiderer, Albert Pfeiderer and Chester Miller. There are grandchildren and great - grandchildren surviving also and many were among the many, many relatives and friends attending both the services at Seminole and the interment at Shawnee last Wednesday, September 29th.

Sierra Madre Community Library's Librarian Robert Ragsdale and his wife, Winifred, recently returned from a four weeks motor vacation to the Rocky Mountain National Parks in Canada. Among those they visited were Banff, Glacier, Jasper and Waterton. They drove their camper and along the route, through pretty wild country most of the time, they saw lots of wild animals — elk, mountain goats and sheep, deer and even peaceful looking bear eating berries from roadside bushes.

An unexpected delay on their itinery, due to 'automotive trouble,' resulted in a few extra days stay in Calgary. This misfortune turned into good fortune, for Bob and Winnie found a lot in the city that they would have missed if they had been able to stick to their original schedule.

Like most of us returning from vacations, the Ragsdales are ready to go again!

Fredric and Jennie Dattermann and their two children, Gretchen (3½) and Peter (almost 1) had a great vacation this year. One week was spent in Nampa, Idaho (near Boise) visiting with Jennie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Parsons. And part of that time, Fred, Mr. Parsons and Jennie's brother, Albert Parsons did some back-packing into the interior and Aenas Lake, for some fishing. Fred, by the way, caught the longest fish — 18 inches.

Won't be too long before young Peter will be able to joint the men-folk on a 'hike' like that!

capital outlays necessary to improve the pumping, distribution, and storage of city water.

The basis of this recommendation is that we do not believe sufficient funds will be generated through the anual earnings of the water department to make the necessary capital improvements in the time required.

Under the present rate structure and assuming no significant increase in customers, we estimate the total earnings of the water department at only about $100,000 per year excluding any capital spending or transfers to the General Fund and the Central Garage. Therefore, capital project costs on the order of $200-$300,000 per year over the next 3 to 5 years, as now estimated by the administrative staff, cannot be met by water department earnings. Also, there are no funds available from other city accounts that can be transferred to meet this deficit.

We are not in agreement that the full amount of $2.1 milion in water bonds, as proposed in the last election, is necessary to provide Sierra Madre with an excellent operating water system for existing and future needs.

2. Assuming your concurrence that a bond issue is in order to fund water department capital projects, we recommend repayment of the bonds be made by an increase in the water rate to meet th repayment schedule. However, any rate increase should be limited expressly to meet repayment only as the bonds are sold and no more than one increase per year.

3. We further recommend that at such time as bonds are sold and remain outstanding, that a limit be imposed on transfers from the water fund to other accounts. We consider this a point of prudence to maintain readily available funds for routine maintenance and a reserve for emergency repairs and capital projects presently unforseen.

If these three recommendations are acceptable to you, we propose that the capital project program be reviewed with a more critical view toward basic need, economy, and the financial burden to be placed on property owners in Sierra Madre.

It is also necessary to project the future role that water department surplus funds will play in contributions to other city projects. Therefore, we would appreciate your consideration of our recommendations and approval to continue to consult with the city staff toward improving the water department facilities.

Fall Fashions At Women's Club For October 19

We're holding a private Fashion Sale! The Sierra Madre Community Hospital Auxiliary invites members and their guests to a Fall Showing. The sale will be held Tuesday, Oct. 19, Sierra Madre Women's Club, from 10-2. The presentation includes over 400 of the finest dresses, costumes, knits and pant suits available in sizes 8 through 18.

Mrs. William Osmond, Auxiliary ways and means chairman, is in charge of the event. Guests are invited to browse, try on, and buy these fabulous fashions. Admission is free but bring your checkbook.

If interested in attending please contact an auxiliary member. Proceeds from the sale will go to benefit the Sierra Madre Community Hospital.

Space Available In PCC Parent Education Classes

There is still limited space available in several Parent Education classes offered by Pasadena City College in the Sierra Madre area for parents and pre-school children.

Mothers (and/or fathers) are invited to attend these no-tuition classes and observe their children in a nursery school setting. The teacher conducts a daily round-table discussion for parents with opportunity offered for further study.

Parents are increasingly aware of the importance of the early years in a child's total development and are anxious to provide an enriched environment for their children. Parent education preschool classes meet once a week and are available at Sierra Madre Park on Fridays for preschool children ages 2 to kindergarten from 9 to 12 noon. Also three classes are held at Sierra Madre Methodist Church: Monday for 2 year olds 9 to 11:30 a.m.; Thursday for mixed ages (2 to kindergarten) 9 to 12 noon; and Friday for ages 3 and 4 from 9 to 12 noon.

Boutique To Be Held Nov. 6th

The workshop of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital Auxiliary will hold its Boutique on Saturday, Nov. 6, at the Sierra Madre Women's Club, from 10-3. Mrs. Wm. Stoddart, Workshop director, and her committee, Mmes: Harry Lang, Richard Law, and Otto Harb, all of Sierra Madre, have contributed long hours in making a variety of exquisite gifts including many Christmas items.

The Candy Stripers of the Auxiliary will have a Bake Sale Booth. The public is invited to attend and admission is free.

Mrs. Margaret Bish, Well Known For Community Service, Passes Sept. 25

Mr. Margaret Bish, wife of Dr. Charles C. Bish passed away September 25. She was known and loved throughout the Pasadena area where she and Dr. Bish had devoted much of their time to working with young people. Her former students at the South Pasadena Junior and Senior High Schools will remember her as Miss Brown, a gifted art teacher under whose guidance and supervision they designed and constructed that city's prize-winning float in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses.

At Beverly Hills High School where she was head of the art department her students won many local and national awards. After moving to Sierra Madre in 1945 Mrs. Bish continued her interest in education. She produced two filmstrips on the subject of dental health. Her charming stories and colorful illustrations have provided pleasure as well as instruction to children in classrooms throughout the United States as as far away as Australia and Japan.

More recently Mrs. Bish again combined her talents for both writing and painting in a series of filmstrips released in June of this year by the education division of CBS. This work traces the origin and development of civilization in ancient Egypt from the time of the discovery of agriculture until the invention of writing. For the past several years Mrs. Bish spent much of her time in study and research which culminated in writing the six scripts and painting the more than 200 pictures which comprise the work.

Memorial services were held Wednesday, September 29, at 2 p.m. in Santa Anita Church, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, with the Rev. Gerald A. Casey officiating.

School Night For Scouting

The San Gabriel Valley Council, Boy Scouts of America, will participate in the Los Angeles, Basin - wide School Night For Scouting on Wednesday, October 6, according to Council Commissioner George L. Way, 1121 Marcheta, Arcadia.

In the Sierra Madre area, the following schools will participate:

Sierra Madre Primary, Sierra Mesa Primary schools, St. Rita's Catholic Church and School, according to Commissioner Allen Wheeler, of the Four Canyons District, who resides at 1257 Michillinda Blvd.

First Work Meet For Shakespeares

The Philanthropy Department of the Shakespeare Club will hold their first work meeting of the fall season on Tuesday, October 12 at 10 a.m. in Stratford House. Mrs. Wesley D. Witter, director, and Mrs. Ronald W. Davis, welfare chairman, have planned a busy year of helping the children of Villa Esperanza. Other services will be to the Roosevelt School, the Head Start program and the American Field Service.

Reservations for a buffet lunch served by the members must be in by October 7. An afternoon of bridge will follow the lunch. Mrs. Alfred C. Alig is chairman.

Eaton Golf Club Plays Tourney

Eaton Canyon Women's Club played the last of the season away from home games at Rancho Park Golf Course, with a field of 42.

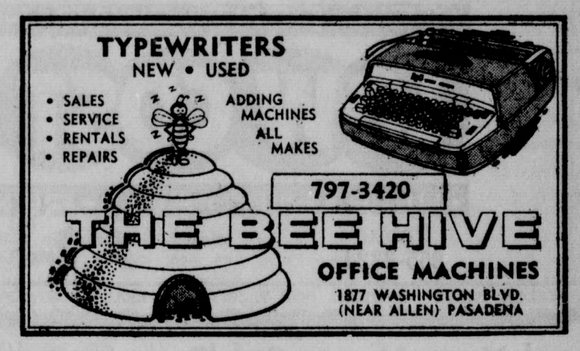

Low gross and low net winners in each flight. Bev Whitaker won in Class A and Peg Simpson was second. Flight B gave honors to Jeanne Mac Donaugh and Ruth Formhals.

In Flight C, low gross was won by Charlene Meledy, low net going to Mary Garrick. Margaret Dunkle was best in C, followed by Evelyn Swett.

City Officials Ask For Salary Survey

Board of Supervisors, on motion of Chairman Warren Dorn, recently requested the League of California Cities to appoint city officials to a special advisory committee to study salaries in local government.

Dorn said the committee would meet with the Board, providing information on salaries and advise as to the effects of county salaries on the cities.

Roger Walker Challenges Mayor Rule On His Appointments

statement that he was "tired of asking businessmen to serve on the various committees and being refused" and he continued that "up and down the main street many businessmen had served and some of them had quit because they could not stand the pressure of losing business." And he continued that "always someone comes into the business place and sticks their finger in the businessman's eyes and says, 'I've had it with you — for your decisions" and he mentioned such persons as Don Jackson, Jack Overholt, Sam Simpson and others.

President Walker then stated that "Businessmen feel that they are getting the wrong end of he deal in not having a VOICE in the planning and the city government; that they were receiving poor consideration for their many problems. Whereupon Mayor Rule stated that he knew of no businessman that would consider the appointments at this time.

Roger Walker: "Mr. Mayor you are living in the 1880's, come up to the 1971's; I am sure there are over a dozen such businessmen on your main street that would be happy to serve on any of the Commissions." Mayor Rule then answered the challenge by the statement: "Then if this is true, bring be a list of those that would be willing to serve in the future and we will see if they can qualify for the appointments."

Peter Tarup advanced to the roster and made the remark that "Businessmen stayed away in droves, and he thought they should be in attendance. This was confirmed by Councilman Corp, who stated at one time, "I noticed three businessmen in the Planning Commission audience."

In talking to President Walker on Friday it was learned that he already had a list of some 12 businessmen that would have been happy to serve, but that he had not been notified until 3 p.m. Thursday and could not reach the Mayor, and further that he had learned that in talking to some Commissioners that they had made the statement, "We have leaned over backwards for this and that business." And President Walker wants to know as to why they do not lean over backwards for all businessmen, "God knows| they need all the help they can get.

Theer being no resignations, deaths or move aways, the next appointment time for any commissions will be July 1, 1972. Two Councilmen elected in April of 1972, and one Councilman rumored to be resigning the latter part of November or first of December.

There are 19 such appointments: Planning Commission, 7; Zoning Board of Appeals, 5; Parks and Recreation 7; City Council, 5; and not ONE businessman represented!!! Do you wonder why?

Neighbor

Virginia (Mrs. Joe) Signorino's birthday, September 24th, was a very happy and thoughtful day. Her family treated her royally waited on her and showered her with many gifts. The three Signorino children — Jolynn, Kevin and Wendy — presented their mother with all the little, useful items she had on her 'birthday gift ideas' list; you know, those things you always mean to buy but just never get around to actually purchasing because you say they really aren't necessities! And Husband, Joe, brought his lovely wife, a charm bracelet he purchased for her while attending the State Firemen's Convention at Redding, California last month.

Seems like this last part of summer vacation before school and fall takes hold has been quite busy for the Signorinos. Joe had a month's vacation and part of that time the family spent at Lopez Lake (near San Luis Obispo). On the way there, the family stopped and toured at five of the California Missions, really seeing a lot of history. The Mission that most impressed them was "La Purisima" and the Signorinos highly recommend that this one be visited. It is maintained, not by the Church, but by the State of California and has been maintained in as near original state as possible.

After that portion of their vacation Joe, Virginia and the children spent some time at Falling Springs Lodge in the San Gabriel Canyon — located about 4 miles below Crystal Lake, and only about an hour's drive from our city.

The vacation, topped off by Virginia's birthday, was also topped off by an early Christmas present for the family — a color TV — and purchased from a local merchant!

Now the family is getting back into their regular routine, Joe back at work and the kids back in school — plus Virginia is back in school too. PCC is where Virginia is registered and she is taking about twelve hours of classes a week with the eventual goal of becoming an RN (Registered Nurse). This is something that she has always been interested in, along with medicine in general and physical fitness.

More power to her. It's never too late to learn, no matter how many birthdays you've celebrated.

Cactus - Succulent Meeting Oct. 14

"The Various Species and Cultivation of Aloes" will be the program feature at the Monday, October 14, evening meeting of the San Gabriel Valley Cactus and Succulent Society. Joe Kellett, past president of the Sunset Succulent Society in Santa Monica, will present the program.

The Cactus and Succulent Society meetings are held the second Thursday evening of each month at the Los Angeles State and County Arboretum, 301 N. Baldwin Avenue, Arcadia. The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. The public is welcome. There will be refreshments and a plant drawing.

Happy birthday to Peter Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keller, whose 9th birthday was October 6th. Another birthday in the Keller family will be coming up this month, that of Catherine's. Her birthday is October 19th and she will be the ripe-old age of 4.

Flights Suspended

Administration officials report that the United States has suspended flight over Communist China by manned SR-71 spy planes and un-manned reconnaissance drones. This step was taken to avoid any incident that might interfere with President Nixon's planned trip to Peking.

by NANCY BRYAN

Mrs. Amilee (Ross) Phillips, Bethany Sunday School teacher, had three of the girls from her first grade over to dinner on Sunday, September 26. After noon dinner, the little girls — Barbara Wheeler, Rocheel D'Arezzo and Cynthia Mann — helped Mrs. Phillips make cookies for shut-ins. When the cookies were done and had cooled, the girls and their teacher called on four Sierra Madre shut-ins delivering cookies, cheer and a few songs. A very thoughtful gesture on their part which gave pleasure to both 'receivers and givers.'

Mrs. Phillips tries to arrange such an activity at least once a month, giving each member of her Sunday school class a chance to participate in this experience of doing for others.

Jackie Wilson, daughter of Jack and Betty Wilson celebrated her 10th birthday with a family birthday party last Friday evening, October 8. Among those attending Jackie's 'tea party' were, in addition to her parents: her sister and brother-in-law and young niece, Jeannette and Larry Holterhaus and Sandra of Sierra Madre; her sisters, Christine and Barbara of Sierra Madre; and a few close friends and neighbors. Jackie, a friendly and active young lady, has recently become a member of Girl Scout Troop 575, and so far, is extremely pleased with the organization.

A 16th birthday is a special milestone and Donna Miller, whose 16th birthday was September 30th, managed to celebrate the occasion several times . . . . rightfully so. Family birthday dinner, was one of the celebrations and was attended by her parents, Don and Katie Miller, her two brothers, Mike and Greg, and her friends, Earl Hill of Pasadena and Candi Stark of Sierra Madre.

Other celebration was a birthday dinner given for the birthday girl by her aunt, Neta Perry of Venice. Attending this party with Donna was her friend, Earl Hill.

Happy 16th birthday to Donna. May each following birthday be just as exciting.

You can still make many friends by speaking nicely about people.

Delta Gamma Alumnae Lunch

Delta Gamma Alumnae of Pasadena will hold their monthly meeting on Tuesday, October 12 at 11 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Glen Highman, 1821 Alta Oaks Drive in Arcadia.

The speaker for the day will be Betty McDermott, widely known lecturer on food and author of the new cookbook, "California Cooks!" She will prepare several gourmet dishes and copies of her cookbook will be available for autograph.

The luncheon chairman, Mrs. Kern A. Fiedler, will be assisted by Mrs. Edward Fulham, Mrs. Kenneth Tolbert, and Mrs. Claude Perier. Delta Gammas in the area are extended an invitation to attend this taste tempting meeting and make reservations with either Mrs. Fulham or Mrs. Tolbert.

Services Held For Charles Ellet, Sr.

The family of Charles Ellet, Jr., 536 Manzanita, was saddened by the death of Mr. Ellet's father, Charles Ellet, prominent businessman and resident of Palo Alto since 1908. Mr. Ellet was the last remaining charter member of the Palo Alto Real Estate Board, and the last charter member of the Palo Alto Board of Insurance Brokers.

Mr. Ellet, Jr. was present at the services September 29, in Palo Alto, as illness in his family prevented the entire family from attending. Services were under the auspices of the Palo Alto Elk's Lodge 1471, of which Mr. Ellet was a member for 48 years.

His last visit to Sierra Madre was in April of this year, when he visited 4 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. He is survived by 6 children, 26 grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren.

Post Office Procedure For Weekend

Columbus Day will be observed on Monday, October 11. The following service policy will be in effect on Saturday, October 9, Sunday, October 10, and Monday, October 11.

Saturday, Oct. 9: 1. delivery service — normal Saturday delivery service will be provided on all city delivery routes. 2. Collection service — will be limited to the collection by residential carriers during delivery; to lobby drops, and to business areas collection boxes. 3. Lockbox service — provide normal Saturday lockbox service. 4. Special delivery — provide normal special delivery service.

Sunday, October 10: Normal Sunday service will be provided at the Sierra Madre Post Office.

Monday, October 11: 1. No window service will be provided. 2. There will be no delivery of mail by the city carriers. 3. Regular holiday lockbox service will be provided. 4. Special delivery service will be maintained. 5. All letter and drop boxes will be collected at least once throughout the city.

Senior Citizens

ported a balance of $74.68 in the bank. It was moved and seconded to pay all current bills.

The corresponding secretary sent a get well card to Vivian Singleton who is ill; a thank you note to Mr. Renfro, director of Parks and Recreation for his prompt attention to repairing and beautifying the kitchen.

Mrs. Pickett announced Beulah Laughlin was in the Parkwood Convalescent Hospital, recuperating from two cataract operations.

Lillian Graham and Bess Wetzel were wished happy vaactions on their trips back East.

The kitchen committee was thanked for their services and the group adjourned to play cards.

Happy birthday greetings this month go to many Sierra Madreans, among whom are Betty (Mrs. Nick) Argy and Nancy (Mrs. Leo) Lehner who happen to have birthdays on the same day — October 14. Our best to both of them.

Nursery School Fall Lectures Series Start

The Sierra Madre Community Nursery School opens its fall lecture series on Wednesday, October 13, with "Art Education for Vision," presented by Mrs. Edna Hansen, director, Adult Education, Whittier Union High School District.

Thursday, November 4th, "Language Development of the Preschool Child" is the subject to be covered by Dr. Elise Hahn, professor, California State College at Los Angeles.

On Tuesday, November 23rd, Mrs. Dorothy Mc Kenzie, professor, California State College at Los Angeles will speak on "Books Which Fathers, Mothers, and Children Will Enjoy."

Last in the series, "Sociodramatic Play — New Insights Into Enjoying Your Child," by Mrs. Geraldine Frields, assistant professor, California State College at Los Angeles, will be presented on Monday, December 6.

The nursery school is located at 701 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. All of the programs begin at 8 p.m., are free and anyone interested is cordially invited.

Alpha Chi Omega Alumnae Meeting

"Gourmet desserts, bridge and cards" will be the bill of fare as the Evening Section of the San Gabriel Valley Alumnae Chapter of Alpha Chi Omega meet at 12:30 Wednesday, October 13 at the Arcadia home of Mrs. C. Elwood Laine, 600 Gloria Road.

A short business meeting will follow the gourmet desserts, and all members are urged to stay and play cards and/or bridge.

A highlight of the afternoon will feature the awarding of a grand prize. The winner will receive a free ticket to the coming "Magic in Motion" benefit being held at the lovely new ballroom of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel, November 18. This gala affair is the annual fashion show and luncheon presented by the Southern California executive board of Alpha Chi Omega and will benefit their scholarship fund, administered by the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County. The fashions will be presented by a well - known fashion shop.

Interested alumnae are asked to attend and to make their reservations by Friday, October 8, to the hostess Mrs. Laine, 447-7944, or to Mrs. Nils Bjerg, 447-5131.

Letters To the Editor . . . .

Dear Editor Bob:

First of all, THANK YOU for the lovely paper you put out last week. The girls and I missed you — but that's what it takes — long hours! The opening of "Olde Century Lane" was beautifully done! There was not one advertisement that did not have reader interest upon its borders!

NOW to get down to the point of this note (I hope, I hope, I hope!) Could you possibly tell me why figures on the standing of the Pasadena School System (if you might call it a system!) have not been published? Perhaps you have failed to release them, or is it because you have not received them? Rumor has it that Dr. (?) Hornbeck refuses to release the facts due to the utter failure of last year's records. As has been told to me, the Junior High Schools have failed to meet the National Average, with the exception of Wilson Junior High, despite all the VOLUNTEER help of SERVE! Busing HAS been successful — education has NOT.

The blacks are certainly entitled to as fine an education as any other race, whether they be Irish, Scotch, English, French, or whatever — you name it. WHY? haven't they been receiving just the same education in their own school district? WHY? must we taxpayers spend our hard earned dollars to put expensive buses on every street and boulevard? Can our senior citizens afford to pay for this? These are only a few questions — but a note was promised! I hope, I hope, I haven't gone beyond!

— Mrs. R. Robert Evans

EDITOR'S NOTE: Dr. and I use the term loosely, Hornbeck is known never to release anything that is controversially recorded against HIS school system. You should have known this for quite some time. Board member Marcheschi promised to keep the lines of communication open to this newspaper. He knows the score. Maybe you should ask him why. It's a beautiful story of HIGHER EDUCATION BY BUSING. Insist upon it so you know where your $39-million in tax money for schools is going.

PERSONALS

CANKOR SORE — You better believe it, I certainly do believe fully in your most recent theory. I know, but must have someone that believes and is ready for action, I think we have a combination that would be really a hard one to beat. I am willing and ready. Let me know when — REMEDY

CAREFLESS — I was back within fifteen minutes of the expected time. Everything was accomplished in Apple Pie Order. I am thankful that you were waiting for me, the information was indeed vital to our cause, and it was necessary to get it to me at once. Thanks for quick thinikng — SAM SNEED

GIRLS 14-18 — Now is the time to sign up as a Princess participant to ride Sierra Madre's Rose Float in the 1972 New Years Day Parade. Come to the Council Chambers in the City Hall on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 12 noon and register — SMRFA

Attend the Church of your Choice this Sunday; you will always meet your friends there.

PERSONALS

GREAT — Obviously the Mayor is not in touch with the businessmen — at least not in Sierra Madre. Of course — it may be that the businessmen cannot "Qualify" — PAR 9

Owners of a new motor-home, the Jerome (Mary) Stetson family have not yet really given the vehicle a thorough testing. They did have a short trial run down to Julian over the Labor Day weekend and found that they like the principle and operation of a motor-home. With five in the family — Mom, Dad, Sharra, Sloan and Jeff — it makes a wonderful way to travel and vacation.

Hopefully, they will soon give it a real workout.

WATER ELECTION SET FOR NOV. 7 — To Vote on $111,000 Bonds — Voters Will Have Opportunity To Pass Upon Purchase of Water Company's Property — Tuesday, November 7, was selected by the city trustees last night as the date for the special election when the voters of Sierra Madre will pass upon a bond issue of $111,000 for the purchase of the property of the Sierra Madre Water company, and for the development of more water. The purchase price originally agreed upon for the water company's holdings was $96,000. To this amount will be added enough to re-imburse the company for development work and improvements effected since the price was set. The remainder of the $15,000 provided for in the bond issue in addition to the $96,000 will be used by the city for further development and improvement.

The Civil Service Commission will hold an examination or Assistant Forest Ranger on October 23-24, 1911. The U. S. Department of Agriculture estimates that 400 eligibles will be needed during the field season of 1912. Assistant Forest Rangers are paid an entrance salary of $1,110 per annum.

The executive board of the Woman's' Club met at the home of Mrs. W. H. Ingraham Thursday afternoon to talk over plans for the Chrysantemum fete to be given later in the fall.

Miss Anna B. Climie, 252 E. Grand View, is resuming her classes on the piano with both primary and advanced pupils.

Unfair Charge Resented — In some printed literature sent to all Sierra Madre voters from anti-suffrage headquarters the charge is made that "tactics that would put the old-time ward heeler to blush" were employed in securing the indorsement of suffrage by the Long Beach convention of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs.

The Wilds of Chilao — Can you find anything to beat the imaginations of Los Angeles and Pasadena reporters concerning the mountains of this region? Their yarns would make a stranger think he was taking his life in his hands when he ventured beyond the electric sign at the foot of the Mt. Wilson trail. The latest sample is an account of the honeymoon jaunt taken by Jim McNally, formerly owner of Orchard Camp, and his newly acquired wife. They went to Chilao, beyond Pine Flats, a distance of about 30 miles from Sierra Madre. Lewis Newcomb has a cabin there where he has taken his wife and children, not to mention his goats, every summer for several

by JEANNETTE

EDITOR'S NOTE: When her children were young and full of questions, Jeannette Heasley found herself looking up the why fores of the food her children ate and asked questions about. She would write them down and after explaining them to the satisfaction of her children, filed them away for future questions. Now that her children are grown, she extracted them from the Heasley Archives and is sharing them with you in a weekly column

Austria always brings to mind "The Blue Danube," Vienna and eating. Austria's favorite sport is eating. The people love to eat, and consider it an important part of life.

On arising a cup of coffee and a piece of bread or a flaky pastry is the rule. This is followed about 10:30 a.m. with a second breakfast. Lunch is eaten about 1 p.m. and later the favorite repast of the day, tea. The tea is more likely to be coffee — not just plan coffee, but more than likely the overwhelming favorite, Koffee mit Schlagobers, which is translated as coffee with whipped cream — rich, fluffy clouds of whipped cream! With this coffee most people will have sandwiches and mauy rich cakes and pastries.

Dinner is served about 7:30 or 8 p.m. This is followed by a midnight snack consisting of cheese, dark bread, cold meats and beer. Some may even have a few pieces of pastry before retiring.

Austrias cuisine has an international flavor because it has so many neighbors. The country has borrowed freely from the countries around it. These dishes include Italian pastas, Hungarian paprikas and gulyas, German sausages and beer, and French cuisine.

Weiner Schintzel is famous in Austria. This the Viennese method of treating veal, not a hot dog on a bun. The Austrian strudels and tortes, both very rich deserts are also well known.

Typical Austrian dishes are Brennsuppe, a brown soup; Nockerl, very delicious dumplings; and the Schonbrunner lunch, a satisfying ham and vegetable pie. The most popular single dish is boiled beef, prepared in many different ways and using dozens of different cuts of beef. Much of the food of Austria is built around such ingredients as goose fat, thick soups, dumplings, whipped cream and fine potato dishes — all low calorie, of course.

Beer is exceptional in Austria. Wines are very good, but not quite equal to the French wines. Beer gardens are replaced in Austria by wine gardens.

Belgium is a small country, but it has a distinctive national cuisine. Many dishes are so old that their origins are lost in antiquity.

Soups are popular favorites. The classic soup of the country is the waterzooi, made with chicken or fish. Boeuf a la famande, beef made with beer is considered a gourmet dish.

All sorts of seafood are enjoyed — herring, shrimp, oysters, and mussels.

Belgium has two great food sepcialties which are exported to other countries who pay a high price for these delicacies. These are the famous Belgian endive, the pale, bitter leaf that is considered the finest of all salad material, and the black Belgian grapes which are fabulous in size and price.

Rich desserts are appreciated, but the usual meal ends with cheese and with fruit in season.

Beer is the national drink, usually a darker type than is customary in the United States. The favorite after-dinner beverage is brandy. Coffee with a chicory base is a national choice.

Czechoslovakia is a country where fine food and its preparation were given serious consideration before the war.

Ryba na cerno, or fish made with black sauce is a favorite fresh-water fish dish. The fish is cooked in water, vinegar, oninos, parsley, celery, garlic, bay

New Law in effect:

A prediction that 300,000 firms doing business in California under fictitious trade names will re-file under the new fictitious firm name law was made this week by William G. Sharp, county clerk of Los Angeles County. Sharp is chairman of a committee of county clerks which has been preparing procedures for the new statute.

The new requirement for re-filing of all firm names goes into effect July 1, 1971, but Sharp said the filings will be accepted by the county clerk's offices beginning Monday, and he urged early filing in order to avoid the rush just before the July 1 deadline. The filing fee under the new law will be $10. Filings must be renewed hereafter at five year intervals.

The Los Angeles county clerk also pointed out that the historic publication requirement has been continued under the new law and that publication of the statement once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the neighborhood of the affected business is required whenever there has been any change in the information contained in the certificate previously filed. Publication will not be required in instances where there has been no change in the information carried in the old certificate.

A fictitious name, Sharp pointed out, is one that does not include the surname of the operator or one that implies the existence of other owners; or, if a corporation, if it includes a name other than the name given in the articles of incorporation.

The purpose of the fictitious business name procedure is to protect the consumer in enabling him to find out the person with whom he is really dealing, Sharp said. If he has been defrauded by the "John Doe Television and Time Clock Repair Shop" and the shop is really owned and operated by "Richard Roe" or the "East Ganawanda Land and Farming Corporation," the consumer can find in the fictitious name statement information for bringing suit for damages. The procedure provides a ready source of information concerning identity realities obscured by fictitious business or trade names. Most banks now require evidence that the fictitious filing and publication requirements have been met before they will open an account under a fictitious name.

The office of each county clerk will furnish forms required by the new law or information and forms from this newspaper.

Sections 17900-17930 of Business and Professions Code in Effect Jan. 1, 1971*

Refiling Dead-Line July 1, 1971

County Clerk's Filing Fee is $10 for Re-Filing or New Filing*

Publication Charge Will Be $23.00 If Publication Required.

*Old civil code sections prevail in part until July 1, with filing charge of $2.00. Only a single publication required for interim $2 filing and for the prospective $10 refiling.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON THE NEW FICTITIOUS NAME LAW

1. QUESTION: When does the new Fictitious Name Law take effect?

ANSWER: It took effect on July 1, 1971.

2. QUESTION: Who must file the required new statement of doing business under a fictitious name?

ANSWER: All individuals, partnerships and corporations which operate under names not their own must file. All old certificates expired June 30, 1971.

3. QUESTION: What is a Fictitous Firm Name?

ANSWER: One that does not include the surname of the operator, or one that implies the ownership participation of others such as Brothers, Sons, Associates, Company"; or if a corporation owner, a name different from that registered in the Articles of Incorporation.

4. QUESTION: What is the purpose of the fictitious name procedure?

ANSWER: The requirements have been in effect in California since 1872 and are designed to protect the consumer by enabling him to identify the person or persons with whom he is really dealing.

5. QUESTION: Must all firm presently doing business under fictitious names file new statements?

ANSWER: Yes, all must re-file under new code sections of the Business and Professions Code which replace those in the Civil Code: The new sections are 17900-17930 and also Sections 7540 and 10159.5 and Section 10522.5 of the Business and Professions Code, and Section 12300.2 of the Financial Code.

6. QUESTION: Must all firms doing business under a fictitious name publish at the time of filing?

ANSWER: County Clerk of Los Angeles County has ruled that effective July 1, 1971, all registrants under the new law must publish.

7. QUESTION: Precisely what is the process for publishing?

ANSWER: Publication must be made once a week for four weeks in a qualified newspaper circulating in the area of the affected business. Publication must be commenced within 30 days after filing. And proof of publication must be filed with the County Clerk within 30 days after completion of publication.

8. QUESTION: Is a filing of the new form since January 1, 1971, adequate?

ANSWER: Yes, filings under the new law have been accepted since January 1, to be effective July 1, 1971.

9. QUESTION: What is the penalty for failure to file and publish?

ANSWER: One penalty will be inability to maintain a court action until the law has been complied with. In addition, most banks demand evidence of filing and publication prior to opening an account under a fictitious firm name.

10. QUESTION: Where are the printed forms to be obtained for this filing and publication procedure?

ANSWER: Free forms and service are available at most newspaper offices or at any office of the County Clerk, or from California Newspaper Service Bureau, Inc., 210 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California. Phone MA 5-2541.

11. QUESTION: What is the cost of filing and publishing?

ANSWER: Statutory filing fee for the new statement, inclusive of mandatory certification of a copy by the County Clerk, is $10.00. Publication charge for the four insertions of the notice is determined by the selected newspaper.

12. QUESTION: Can two or more fictitious name businesses operating under different names from the same address but owned by the same person or persons file and publish under a single statement?

ANSWER: Yes, provided two or more filing fees of $10.00 each are paid the County Clerk for multiple indexing, and provided that printer's proofs of publication are provided the County Clerk for filing with the original copies of the consolidated statement. Most newspapers will make an additional charge for each additional firm name.

13. QUESTION: Will a change in residence address of an individual or member of a general partnership doing business under a filed fictitious name make necessary a publication when filing is repeated at the end of each five year period?

ANSWER: Yes, publication will be required when re-filing is made at the end of each five year period if there has been any "change in information" which makes a new statement differ from the old one. If there have been no changes in the statement from one five year period to the next, no additional publication will be required. However, this issue cannot be raised until 1976 and the years thereafter.

14. QUESTION: Is it mandatory that a single style of printed form be used in filing and publishing of Fictitious Name Statements?

ANSWER: County Counsel of Los Angeles County has ruled that any form is acceptable provided it is of the 8½ by 11-inch dimensions prescribed by the State Judicial Council for forms, and provided it embraces all items specified in Section 17913 of the Business and Professions Code, and without regard to other material that may be printed on the forms for identification or informational purposes.

15. QUESTION: After July 1, 1971, will all new filings require pubication?

ANSWER: All new filings will require pubication until December 31, 1976. (Ruling of the County Clerk of Los Angeles County.)

16. QUESTION: What other values do registrants gain through publication of Fictitious Firm Names?

ANSWER: Evidential proof of priority is established in the event competitors later use or file under the same name. Also their is direct advertising value for the firm through publication four times in a local newspaper of substantial circuation of the name and address of the business, it being noted that newspapers frequently print such names in black face type in capital letters, spaced separately.

17. QUESTION: Where can I see the new law?

ANSWER: Most of the sections are quoted on printed form obtainable free from:

It's always exciting to attend a high school class reunion, no matter how long ago you graduated. And that is just what Mrs. William (nee Evelyn McGrane) Shaw is going to do. It will be the 20 year class reunion for the graduating class of 1951 of Watertown High School, Watertown, Mass., and Evelyn and her husband, a non-Watertown H.S. attender, will be leaving Friday, October 1st for Boston to attend the festivities. They expect to be gone about nine days. While gone, Mr. Shaw's mother will be staying with the two Shaw children, Marilyn and Alison.

Incidently, Watertown is near Cambridge, Mass. And no need to tell the Shaws to have a fun time. We know that they will enjoy the 20th reunion, and all that goes with it.

Former Sierra Madreans, Dr. and Mrs. James P. Comerford will be houseguests of Postmaster and Mrs. Guy Rossi this weekend. The Comerfords, who now make their home in Rancho, California (down Temecula way), will be in the area to attend a reunion of the Alumnae Association of Jefferson Medical School (Philadelphia) being held in La Canada.

years. It is not a great distance from the end of the Pine Flats telephone line. The Examiner reporter describes the country, however, as something equal to the wilds of Africa.

The stockholders of the Sierra Madre Cemetery Association are feeling good over a three per cent dividend declared for October first. In view of the fact that the company has been in existence only since June and that they have been at quite heavy expense in incorporating, etc., the prospect is very encouraging...

If you see a high school boy waving or displaying a little yellow-and-black flag as you whizz past on Central avenue one of these mornings, you will know he has missed a car or is in danger of being late to school and will appreciate a lift. He isn't going to leap into the street and try to stop you when you don't want to be stopped. He is simply going to hold out that flag when you are still half a block away, so you'll have plenty of time to make up your mind and stop if you want to. He will be displaying the latest thing in novelties, the official hitch-hiker's flag. A couple of months ago Lee Shippey humorously suggested that there should be such a flag, for use in communities like this, in which street cars run only once an hour, so that when one missed a car he might let any passing friend or neighbor know of his plight without undignifiedly waving down a passing motorist who might be going only a block or so. E. S. Jones, head of a big decorating company in Los Angeles, saw possibilities in the idea, believing such flags might be of great service in hundreds of suburban communities. The result is the flags have just appeared. A group of Pasadena Junior College students secured the first bunch of them. On the yellow background of the flags is a picture of a motorist giving a lift, and, the words: "Please Give Me a Lift."

The Church of the Ascension celebrates its 5th anniversary on Sunday, Oct. 8, at 10 a.m. The Rev. Ivol Curtis, D.D., suffragan bishop of Los Angeles, will preside and preach at the Mass of Thanksgiving. Celebrant of the Mass will be the rector of the parish, Rev. Harley Gibbs Smith, Jr. William Keith will be the master of ceremonies. Special music is planned directed by David J. Billitter, organist and choirmaster.

One hundred years of a pleasant life, including 66 years a Sierra Madrean, is the splendid vista which pioneer Mrs. Mary D. Caley faces as she observes her 100th birthday anniversary tomorrow, Friday, Oct. 6. Mrs. Caley, still active and alert, came to Sierra Madre in 1895 from Cleveland, O., for her health. Her first residence was where City Hall stands today, and secondly in a house then standing on the site of the new Headline Restaurant. In 1896, she and her family moved to their new family home at 233 Ramona Ave., where she resides today. Her husband, William P. Caley, who passed away in 1943, was this city's first fire marshal, street superintendent and tax collector. Mrs. Caley is the oldest living charter member of the Sierra Madre Woman's' Club and a member of the Congregational Church. Mrs. Caley resides in the family home with her two daughters, Mrs. Hilde C. Noble and Mrs. Maybelle C. Barker, and her granddaughter, Nadine A. Noble . . .

Rifle Tourney For Oct. 2 - 3

The 10th annual fall gallery match, junior rifle tournament, will be conducted by the Pasadena Rotary Junior Club and co-sponsored by the Pasadena Rotary Club and Pasadena Department of Recreation at the junior rifle club range, 2873 New York Drive in Eaton Canyon. The tournament dates are Saturday & Sunday, October 2 and 3. Firing will start at 9 a.m. each day and the public is invited to watch. Competition is in the prone, sitting, kneeling and standing positions using smallbore rifles.

Statistical Officer is Frank Vining; the range officer will be Art Emrich and the deferee is Keith Odenweiler, according to Norman Klein, director of the Rotary Junior Rifle Club.

Junior shooters are expected from 15 or more rifle clubs in Southern California, Nevada and Arizona.

leaves, thyme, pickling spices and ginger. A mixture made of prunes, beer, lemon rind, bread cubes, gingersnaps, raisins, almonds, lemon juice and sugar is made into a sauce and poured over the fish.

The favorite main dishes are those made with pork or goose. These are served with sauerkraut and dumplings. A favorite way of serving sauerkraut is hot with caraway seeds. Pork products are prepared in many ways, but the favorite of all is sausage. The Czech ham, Prague-style ham, is canned and shipped all over the world.

The Pilsener beer of Czechoslovakia is considered one of the world's finest beers. Beer is made into a soup. This combines beer, water, sugar, butter, egg-yolks and heavy cream.

Dumplings in Czechoslovakia come in every conceivable size and shape; round and small, egg shaped, nut-shaped, heavy, light, doughy, spongy, rich or unsweet. These are served in soups, with meats or poultry and a tremendous array of desserts are built around the sweet dumplings. The housewives treasure their dumpling recipes and refuse to trade them even with their best friends. A good dumpling recipe is regarded as part of every young girls dowry.

Denmark has a cuisine similar to its Scandinavian neighbors, but with many unusual variations and local specialties. The large selection of appetizers known in Sweden as smorgasbord exist in a different form in Denmark where it is called smorrebrod. Instead of being placed in bowls and on platters, the appetizers are made into individual open-faced sandwiches.

Most Danes begin their day with a light breakfast. Lunch is eaten about 1 p.m. in the afternoon is the smorrebrod.

Smorrebrod is eaten by everyone for lunch every day. The bread is sliced very, very thin. It may be white, whole-grain, sour rye, pumpernickel or any other unusual type. The bread is then spread with butter, and then spread with hard cooked eggs, sardines, tiny cooked shrimp, meat, cheese or fish. The variety and combination of these spreads is endless.

Dinner is about 6 or 7 in the evening and consists of a meat dish and dessert. It is customary to pass both the main course and the dessert several times.

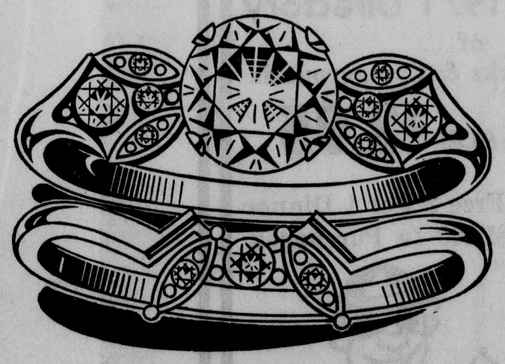

Denmark has numerous food specialties: Shrimp, butter, and the world renowned Danish pastry. In Denmark this pastry has an exceptional lightness and flakiness.

A family dinner party was held in honor of Scott Bryan's 12th birthday, Tuesday evening, September 28th. Among those attending the dinner was his great-grandmother Mrs. Helen Tarr, long time resident of this community. After dinner, Scott's close friend, Bill Garr and his sister, Jeanne, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Garr, stopped by for birthday cake and to extend best wishes.

Scott, a student in the 7th grade at Anoakia, is the son of Gerald and Nancy Bryan.

You and Your Neighbors

by NANCY BRYAN

Paul and Ruth Tate have a new addition to their family — a teacup poodle. And they are simply thrilled with the tiny creature, which they plan to let a friend show for them — which means some very extensive training for the little dog. Just to be different, and since they are so pleased with the little dog, the Tates decided to send out announcements to their friends about their new pet. Couldn't find any announcements that were really appropriate, so Mr. Tate made up his own on white formal note paper with a blue bow. Inside, composed by Mr. Tate, was the following literary gem: "Mama's excited; Daddy's delighted; And even Bunny's having a ball. Me, I'm just trying to sleep thru it all. I'm a new black Teacup poodle named Paru's Bonami of Sierra Madre — 'Bonbon'. I was born August 3, 1971, and I now weigh 16 ounces. Mama and Daddy are Ruth and Paul Tate and Bunny's my kitty-sister!"

Of course, Bonbon has gained some weight since that announcement and he weighs the grand total — at this writing — of some 18 ounces. (Bunny the Persian cat, weighs in at 10 pounds one ounce!)

The Tates have had a lot of fun with this announcement and have received much mail and comments about the announcement and about "Bonbon."

Incidently, Ruth and Paul's adopted son, Fred O'Byrne is presently in Vietnam and they hear regularly from him. Their daughter and son-in-law, Barbara and Gerry Frank recently became the owners of a 16 foot inboard out-board Gulfstream boat and have been traveling to the Colorado River quite a bit to give it a workout. Barbara is a real Sierra Madre girl and grew up here and attended all local schools including the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School where she is presently a teacher's helper. Her own son, Conrad Paul, is now attending the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric (Elaine) Martens and the elder of their two children, Erin (almost 5) traveled to the beautiful White Mountains in Arizona in the early part of September. While there, they rode the steam engine at McNary on an all day scenic trip to Apache Springs. They even drove up to Durango, Colorado and rode the narrow gauge steam engine from there to old mining town of Silvertown, also an all day trip and very scenic.

On the way home, they stopped at Phoenix for a few days to visit with firends. And the weather was indeed hot when they were there. Then when they arrived home from their 8 day vacation trip, the Martens timed their arrival with the terrible hot spell we had — maybe they brought that hot Phoenix heat home with them??

Next year, maybe other daughter, Elise Marie (1½) will be old enough to make a vacation trip, such as this, with the family.

Happy wedding anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Eric (Elaine) Martens. Date was September 19 and they exchanged their original vows in South Pasadena seven years ago. We wish them continued happiness.

PERSONALS

TIMOTHY — Heaven forbid, I would not attempt to get you into trouble whatsoever, for remember if you are in trouble that also has a great tendency to drag me into it also, and I just do not want any part of it. All I said is keep as close to the truth as possible. Mother knows a lot more than you think she does and a slip might take all the rags off the bushes. Think — TILLEY

CAPPY — I have known about that direction for quite some time now, but do hesitate to use it until it is absolutely necessary, but if the time does come remember I will not hesitate, and you must be ready to make the trip as discussed. In the meantime — Listen don't talk — PEACHES

KING OF SPADES — I am all set for the 19th, you know all about the 4th and there comes a time in every girls life when she is put on the shelf to sort of dry, but brother will I be in there swinging with all I have on the 19th. I still have vibrations from September and can hardly wait for the next opportunity. So will be at the appointed place at the appointed time — HEAVENLY WONDER

HAMILTON — I cannot say that I do approve of what you have done, in fact it was not the gentlemanly thing to do, especially when it could have been handled in much more of a sutle way; but as youth travels forth the Seniors of the nation must tolerate. You got the job done, eh? — DAD

NORMAN — When the Cats away the mive do play. If you continue to run in the same spot, I will clue you in; you will certainly not get anywhere in my life. Pull up short, take inventory and then get together with the master. I have some viewpoints to express soon — HELEN

SCUDDLED ONE — I know exactly what you are hinting about, and I am taking steps to try and eliminate this problem. If you will just go along with me for a while longer I am sure that things will work out to the best advantage to all of us. I realize that there must be much more, for I have had a little lacking in one department and should be thoroughly sold. I was sure sorry about October 2nd and 3rd, but you know others rule my life at times. Let's try 10 or 11th — TAME ONE

MADELINE — Can you see the handwriting on the walls at night. Just close your sweet blue eyes and look up at the ceiling. What do you see? Remember the Alamo? Remember Dick? I do, always — CT

CLAYBOURN — Yes you certainly did start in about the same place and look at you now. I have made you what you are today and just do not ever forget it either, for I can tear you down just as fast, but of course this will never be done as long as you meet the requirements — BEAN POLE

TROUBLED — Yes I guarantee you that you have only touched the surface and that you have indeed a very long way to go to meet the plateau that we talked about many months ago, but your progress has been absolutely tremendous and I want to say I have never been more satisfied and complete in all of my life. I do hope that time will pass quickly so that we can carry on — HAROLD J.

FAMOUS—There just wasn't anyone at home at the time that I was to make contact, you just must believe this. I tried three separate times to no avail. Give me the opportunity to prove it. I can if you will just return to the station with me, but it will have to be very soon. — TENSIE

HAZELTON — Just hold on to your hat, now that you have arrived I am sure that things will soon start, but do not run off and leave us holding the bag. We have the work for you and you are the only one that can do it. That is exactly why we sent for you. Hold — TEDDY BEAR

HARRIETT — I am in no way indicating or even suggesting that you might be a failure. Not to me in any respect. I only told you what some peoplle are thinking and I would not care to mention any names here but will say look over HET, and I think you will get the message. Raymond has no influence on either of us, just remember that. I know where the fleece is buried, but we do have to have the snow to go for the sled ride, don't you think? — PERSONALLY YOURS

ROY — I will tell you for sure, I was certainly not disappointed. Thanks a lot for all that you have done and are doing. Without you life would certainly be a bore. Come to me soon — PEACHES

GLORIA — You know something?? Ole Jack has been sparring around now for almost a month. Something big is on his mind and I am of the opinion that he is about ready to explode, but in the meantime we go on, and on with those Suits for 99c. I have actually compared the workmanship with others at twice the price and can see NO difference, and I know Hubby doesn't see any difference, for he was raise hades if he did. So it's me for Men's Suits cleaned and pressed for only 99c. And of course, I think Vogue Cleaners and Laundry do the shirt laundry for everyone in town. How could you miss when you get 4 Shirts beautifully laundered in boxes or on hangers for $1.09. Just think of the time, water, soap, electricity and a poor aching back you save. I do — SUSIE Q

BETTY — Better get yourself a pocket full of rocks. You ar getting closer and closer to having a good reason to use them. I am still waiting for the imoprtant phone call, and you will be happy when you finally make it. Remember, life only goes by once and its your turn — AN ADMIRER

SINGING SAM — Well, are you now satisfied? The dirty work has been done and done well, and to all our complete satisfaction. I don't think we will have to worry about that score again, but it was all that both of us could do to pull the caper. Thanks, buddy — BIG G

EDDIE — Please do no feel badly of Sierra Madreans turn you down when the count comes in on the Water Bonds. After all they are taxed to the limit, and some more than the limit. Truthfully I do not know what you are to do next. Probably the best thing would be to ask for Sierra Madre to divorce itself from the district. After all we are a detriment to them and only worth about 7 per cent in their efforts. Let's take a look at that situation. After all 2020 is a long time — PEPI

ACE-IN-THE-HOLE — Well, they loused things up last week so will repeat what I had to say again, and this time at no cost . . . ha! — . . .

ACE-IN-THE-HOLE — We will be rolling along soon, and the sooner the better. I have made a couple of tentative purchases lately and they are well worth the money, and am wondering if you are still in the market for any more. I know of a couple that are leaning and could be pushed, but hesitate for I do not want further area. Let me know what your desire might be next — CUT-THROAT

BE GENTLE — Be kind, to that expensive carpet, clean with Blue Lustre. Rent electric shampooer for $1 at Arnolds Hardware and Gift Store at 297 West Sierra Madre Boulevard. Just call 355-3365 and ask for Bob; he has a lot of good suggestions and answers to your carpet and upholstery cleaning problems and he will be happy to share them with you. Now is the time for fall — OLIVER

AMELLIA — Well I told you that Channel 3 would soon get around to the evening programming and now it has happened. Of course they are not going to desert us during the day, but for dad and the children, they will now be on at 6:30 and other times also; just watch the front page of the Sierra Madre News and you can be on the front line when the news is announced — AGNES

PENROD — I was never so scared in all of my life. Thanks for the warning and it sure came in time, for all of us could have been in a peck of trouble and not know it until too late — SAM

This wine is from the heritage cellars of Buena Vista, birthplace of fine California wines.
It was here, in 1857, in the fertile golden hillside of Sonoma's Valley of the Moon, that the titled aristocrat of Hungary, Count Agoston Haraszthy, planted the first varietal wines that were to flourish and blossom into today's vast California fine wine industry. Among these was the interesting Green Hungarian. These grapes were originally brought into Hungary by a Germanic people in mass movement to a new vineyard wonderland. They named the green grapes they brought with them "Green Hungarian" as distinguished from the native Tokays of Hungary. This wine is smi-dry, rich in body and outstandingly mellow, with a particularly pleasant after-taste.

ORDINANCE NO. 878

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE AMENDING SECTION 8310 OF THE CITY CODE RELATING TO DELINQUENT WATER BILLS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SIERRA MADRE DOES ORDAIN:

SECTION 1. Section 8310 of the Sierra Madre City Code is hereby amended as follows:

Section 8310. Delinquent bills. All meters shall be read by the Water Department as provided in Section 8304 of this Chapter and all bills for water or service shall be due and payable at the Sierra Madre City Hall upon presentation. All water bills remaining unpaid after the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following the month in which the bills were mailed shall thereupon become delinquent and there shall be added to such delinquent bill an additional charge of ten percent (10%) which shall thereafter be paid and collected as part of said bill. Where water bills become so delinquent, the service to such delinquent user may be shut off at any time after a ten day written notice. The Water Superintendent may, at his discretion, cause a meter reading to be made at any time and thereupon the bill for water used since the previous reading shall become immediately due and payable and shall become delinquent on the 15th day of the month following the mailing or presentation of such bill and shall be subject to the charges and penalties herein provided for such delinquencies.

SECTION 2. The City Clerk shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance and shall cause the same to be published once in the Sierra Madre News, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, published and circulated in the City of Sierra Madre.

APPROVED and ADOPTED this 30th day of September, 1971.

Ralph R. Rule
Mayor of the City of

That is the question.

Whether 'tis better to buy a car or lease one is a question we can help you answer. It depends on several things—your cash position, the amount of the monthly payment you want, your tax situation, and how you plan to use the car. One of our First Bancounselors can give you an objective, honest opinion on what's best for you. And his professional advice won't cost you a cent.

The slings and arrows of payments. Whether you buy or lease, we can save you as much as $200 or $300 over a 36-month period. That's because we're the source of cash—the money factory. At our billion dollar bank you deal direct. You eliminate financial middlemen who only add to the cost of the loan or lease.

You can also save a noble $72. Every direct car deal at our bank comes with a free, personal checking account for the life of the loan or lease. You save on those pesky $2 per month service charges. So to buy or lease, get the right answer at one of our almost 100 offices in cities and hamlets throughout California.

Daytime, Evening Keypunch Classes Offered Adults

Pasadena City College's Community Adult Training Center located at 1450 North Lake Avenue in Pasadena will have a morning and evening kepunching course. Morning classes will be held Monday through Thursday from 8 a.m. until 12 noon. The evening classes will be held on Monday and Wednesday nights from 7 until 10 p.m.

This course in keypunching is designed for men and women seeking a career as a skilled keypunch operator and covers techniques of operating the 026, 029 and the 059-I.B.M. machines in conjunction with the Royal Keypunch Training Tandem. Theory in the use of making a program card, numerical and alphabetical accuracy and speed drills are also included.

Registration will take place in the classroom and there is no charge. The only requirement is a typing speed of approximately 40 words per minute.

For further information call the Community Adult Training Center 798-0529.

La Salle Parents Plan Barbeque

Blue jeans and Granny dresses will be the order of the day at La Salle High School Parents Association Western Barbecue to be held on the school grounds, 3880 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Pasadena, on Sunday, October 10, from 3:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Dinner will be served from 3:30 until 6:30 p.m. according to Mr. and Mrs. Gene DeWald, chairmen for the event.

Square dancing and old-fashioned games such as sack races will be part of the planned-for-the-family entertainment.

Letters To the Editor . . . .

Dear Editor:

The publicity you gave the Caliofmnia China Painters Art Association in your newspaper, was greatly received last year.

We are again soliciting your help to publicize our annual show.

Enclosed is a brochure giving all the particulars of our show, being held October 16 and 17.

All the members of the California China Painters Art Association want to thank you for your assistance and interest in community affairs.

— Mrs. Marie Cole

Dear Editor:

Every day or so, some one sees a friend on the street and blows her horn or his car horn, that is. This is hard on the nerves as car horns nowadays are exceedingly loud.

I hope these boobs read this and get the message. Unnecessary use of the car horn is illegal.

— J. Elder

Attend the Church of your Choice this Sunday; you will always meet your friends there.

You and Your Neighbors

Attending a most exciting performance of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show" in Los Angeles Sunday evening, September 26th were Candy and Robin Evans, Scott Bryan and their mothers. Their report was that this was one of the best events they had seen in a long time. Trick riding and roping; 'real live' buffalo; Indian dances; action sequences; and comedy routines. The time alloted for the show went far too quickly.

Welcome to Mrs. B. G. Harding and her daughter, Deborah,who recently moved here from Pasadena. However, Mrs. Harding is not really new to Sierra Madre. She has taught Kidergarten at Sierra Madre Elementary School for the past eight years. Daughter Debora, a June graduate from Muir High School, is just now beginning her freshman year at the University of Oregon at Eugene. Hasn't been much time for her to write home as to just how she likes it, but the bets are that Debora likes the University of Oregon quite well.

Claude and Genevieve Fritz returned September 27 from a combination fishing trip and archery competition. The fishing came first and it was at Kent Lake out of Beaver, Utah. Was too cold for good fishing and in fact, at 20°, the water pump within the Fritz's camper froze. (We'd say that that was cold, right?)

The Archery competition was at Las Vegas which, as Mrs. Fritz says, provided it's usual windy weather, although temperature wise it was quite comfortable. This time, Claude brought home the second place trophy in B Class. That's very good, anyway you look at it. B Class is the second class down from champion.

So the Fritzes didn't bring any fish — who cares? They brought a trophy home.

Mrs. Raub (Molly) McKim will be hostess today, Thursday, September 30th, to a Teenage Tea held at an exclusive tea room in Pasadena in honor of her niece, Miss Patricia "Patty" Darquea of Ecquador, S.A. Approximately six guests will attend.

Patty has been visiting the McKims and the local Darquea families since September and expects to return home next month. Her time, since her arrival in our country, has been pretty well filled with seeing all th tourists sights — like Disneyland, the Wax Museum, Knott's Berry Farm — and she has been kept quite busy as the honored guest of many outings and parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keller and family just returned from a week's business and pleasure trip to Phoenix, Arizona. The business part of the trip was to attend the Arizona Bankers' Convention. On the way home, the Kellers made the return trip by way of the Grand Canyon, where, as compared to Phoenix, the weather was quite cool.

The Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department held an Ice Cream Social for the members, their wives, and their guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Graves. And there was plenty of delicious home - made ice cream; any topping you could think of; whipped cream; nuts; and bananas for those wishing to make a banana split concoction. All kinds of cookies and, later, coffee were also served to guests. Among those attending were: Chief and Mrs. Charles Brown; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Graves; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grippi; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Guibari; Mr. and Mrs. Len Hall; and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Hall. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Keith; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McMahon; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Probart; Mr. Gene Sawitsky; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Smith; Mr. and Mrs. James Tyler; and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Tyler. Also, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bliel; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Aaizenne; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duer; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sims; and Nancy Bryan.

Ice cream makers were Opal Grippi; Ann Tyler; and Nancy Sims. Although Ed and Arlene Decker could not attend the social, Arlene made some ice cream and sent it over.

While the Graves have a pool in their backyard, to the best of our knowledge, no one fell in, was pushed in, or thrown in. Now that's a record. Another record, would be the amount of ice cream that disappeared in such short order. And to think, it's all fattening!

Our congratulations to Mrs. Ann (James) Tyler, who took a 4th place ribbon for her handwork — a rug — at the Los Angeles County Fair. Many enter, but not all can bring home a ribbon. Ann is quite a talented lady.

Saturday evening, September 25, Mrs. Irene Jackson, her two daughters Debbie and Carolyn; and Mrs. Jane Jardine and her daughter, Karin, were among packed to capacity audience at the Hollywood Bowl to see "Jesus Christ Superstar." The three young ladies had a marvelous time and the performance was everything they had expected it to be. The two adults had figured it was going to be an evening that they would have rather have spent elsewhere. Much to their amazement, and pleasure, they found themselves completely enthralled and thrilled with the program. The evening was a complete success for the teenagers and for the 'over-30' bunch as well, and there was no appearance of a 'generation gap.'

SENSING THE NEWS

Hate." That's the way the radicalized media handle such stories; law enforcement agencies are portrayed as reckless; law-abiding citizens are described as prejudiced; and the criminal elements are characterized as mistreated and long-suffering. The radicalized media ignore the fact that prisons such as Attica are filled with a brutal, savage population convicted of the most atrocious crimes.

It is shocking that the radical-liberal intelligentsia should make common cause with criminals and with the large, hostile underclass that we have in this country today. But it is a fact. The New Left columnist and professor weep over the deaths of imprisoned barbarians and condemn the police who attempt to maintain law and order.

The more radical elements know precisely what they are doing. They envision prisoners in the role of a revolutionary class, men who will not hesitate to terrorize a community as a means of transforming it. Thus the radical leadership encourages Marxist political consciousness among hardened criminals.

Decent citizens should demand that agencies of government adopt a much tougher line in dealing with politicized criminals and their supporters. The Attica rebellion demonstrates the need for restoring the death penalty. Hardened criminals such as the Attica ringleaders don't hesitate to undertake new, bloody deeds because they are confident that capital punishment is a dead letter in the United States. If the electric chair had been in use in New York State, the Attica uprising might not have taken place.

Beyond that, state authorities must screen prison populations more carefully, isolating politicized criminals bent on revolutionary activities behind prison walls. And states most certainly must refuse to permit New Left "observers" to negotiate with or represent prisoners.

Prison reforms are needed in the United States. Thousands of inmates, incarcerated for minor crimes, can be rehabilitated. But much tougher security measures must be applied to Black Panthers and similar types now operating inside prisons, stirring bloody rebellion against lawful authority. And federal and state authorities, including grand juries, should probe for links between politicized prisoners and revolutionary groups on the outside.

Senior Citizens Met September 25

The September 25th Senior Citizens Club was called to order at 11:30 by the president, Mr. Louis Van Iersel welcoming the 27 members present and one visitor, Mary McClung. He also was glad to welcome back Gladys Johnson, corresponding secretary, who had been on a vacation.

The president then led the group in repeating the Lord's Prayer and Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Molly McKim played the piano for the singing of "America."

Following a break for lunch Pansy Hearn awarded the door prizes to Edna O'Neil, Ann Platell and Lorena Craig.

Ann Platell read two poems, "Contentment" and "Small Things." Ann's poems are well chosen and enjoyed by all.

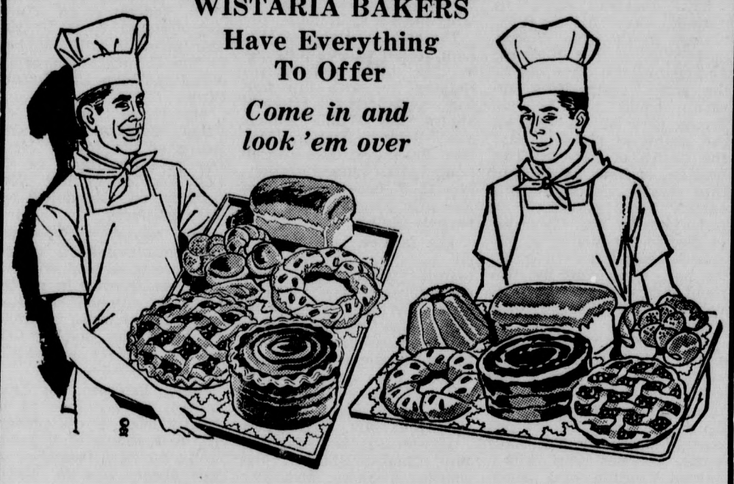

Tour chairman Pearl Patterson reported on the tours Disneyland, October 15; Oakglen, November 1; Sea World and the Zoo, November 11; Hawaii, October 18th to 25th; Monte Corona, October 27 and 28.

The club expressed appreciation to Parks and Recreation Director Steve Renfro for having the kitchen cleaned so promptly.

There being no further business the group adjourned for a social time.

People with plans save at Imperial

The kind of people who can grab a pole and fish in a pond. Wade in the surf. Try the swings at the park. Live right now for all life's worth. But still plan and save for the big things of the future. A new home. A vacation. Education. Retirement. These are the people who save at Imperial. People who make the most of every moment. People who get the most out of their savings, too. Because Imperial Savings pays the highest rates the law allows on insured savings.

Rev. M. Stevens Announces Her Sermon Topic

"Do You Know What You Want?" is the challenge to be presented by Dr. Margaret M. Stevens, minister, on Sunday, October 10. Two worship services are held on Sundays at The Santa Anita Church, 226 West Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, 9:30 and 11 a.m. Junior church meets at 11 a.m. Junior Church young people attend the opening 15 minutes of the worship service with their parents and then go to their own classes. The nursery - playroom in room 5 of The Barnhart School is open to receive children for both services. You are invited to attend.

Adult class work continues on Tuesday evenings from 8 to 9:30 p.m. and it is not too late to receive benefit by joining the class of your choice. A complete broochure is available by phoning the church office, 446-8206. Classes are open to all who are interested.

The Men's Forum will meet for their monthly potluck supper on Wednesday evening at 7 p.m. An interesting program is planned by the program chairman, Mr. Chet Swanson. Men looking for fellowship are invited to attend and get acquainted with the men of the church.

The newly organized women's evening group the "Anitas" has selected their officers. Bee Iddings, president, Jane Haskell, secretary and Virginia Pontius, treasurer. Bunny Shepherd, a successful Pasadena photographer, will speak to the group on "God Is My Partner," Wednesday evening, October 13 at 7:30 p.m. The Anitas extend a cordial invitation to all women who would enjoy sharing this evening with them.

Dr. Stevens will present a series of four orientation sessions on consecutive Thursday evening, October 14, 21, 28 and November 4, for prospective members. People desiring to learn more about The Santa Anita Church and its teachings are invited to attend.

"Aim at the Stars" will be the theme of the annual membership campaign of Sierra Mesa Primary School P.T.A. 100 per cent representation of the students is the goal.

The 1971-72 school year activities will start with a get-acquainted picnic on the school lawn. All family members of Sierra Mesa students are invited to bring a picnic dinner and a blanket on the night of October 12, 1971 at 6:00 p.m. Beverages will be served by the P.T.A.

Come and meet your neighbors and make the membership drive a success.

Breakfast Meeting October 8 For Arcadia Republican Women's Club

It will be a change of pace for the Arcadia Republican Women's Club for their October 8th meeting. A breakfast, to be held at the Huntington - Sheraton Hotel is scheduled to start at 9 a.m.

After a short business session presided over by Mrs. Douglas Moline, president, Mrs. Thomas Portwood, program chairman, will present the guest speaker, Joseph P. Busch, Jr.

Busch, District Attorney of Los Angeles County, will answer the question, "Is There Any Justice in the Criminal Justice System?"

Mr. Busch has been a resident of California since 1937. He received his college training at Arizona State Teachers' College and later at the University of Texas where he earned a bachelor of science degree while enrolled in Navy ROTC program. He earned his law degree by attending evening classes at Loyola University School of Law. During this period his supported his family by working as a prop man for a movie studio and as a claim adjuster for a life insurance company. He received his Juric Doctor degree in 1951 and was the recipient of the Bancroft-Whitney Award for being first in his class. He joined the district attorney's office in 1952.

Busch was promoted to Assistant District Attorney and then was made Chief Deputy District Attorney. By unanimous vote of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors he became District Attorney when Evelle Younger vacated the position to become State Attorney General.

He is a member of the California District Attorneys and County Counsels Association, the National District Attorneys Association, and the American Bar Association. He is also a member of Criminal Law and Procedure Committee of the State Bar of California. He serves on the Sub-Regional Advisory Board of the California Council on Criminal Justice, Region X. Busch has been appointed to five major task forces formed by the State Attorney General's office: consumer problems, environmental pollution, gambling, organized crime, and pornography.

Breakfast reservations should be made by 6 p.m., Wednesday, October 6, with Mrs. C. B. Porter, 447-5418, or with Mrs. Donald Smith, 447-3446.

Other events scheduled for October include representation at the State Federation Convention in Fresno, Oct. 12-14; the National Convention in Washington, D.C., Oct. 21-23; and the Monthly Bridge Luncheon, October 28. The luncheon will be held at The Chalon, 3768 E. Colorado, Pasadena, starting at 10 a.m. Reservations may be made with the chairman, Mrs. James Daly, 447-6475, or with Mrs. Porter, 447-5418.

Sermon Title: 'Two Fountains Of Wisdom'

"The Two Fountains of Wisdom," is the title of the Rev. Richard J. Anderson, pastor of Sierra Madre Congregational Church, 170 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

Rev. Anderson says, in remarks about his sermon: "James in the New Testament tells us that blessing and cursing can come out of the same mouth. This, he says, should not be so. James goes on to tell us the source of blessing and the source of cursing. The blessing is from above and the cursing is from our earthly lower nature. It is important for the Christian to discern the source of his speech because as we do so we have a moment by moment indication of the motivating force behind our lives.

"If a Christian is speaking words of bitterness and strife then he knows the source of that fountain. It is not flowing from the Holy Spirit but from the carnal earthly nature. On the other hand, as the Christian speaks blessing and peace without hypocrisy; he also may know that the source the the Holy Spirit."

You are asked not to forget the rummage sale October 15th and 16th. They are in need of contributions for a successful sale. Please call the church office 355-1423 for pickup.

Sunday school, college career and Adult Bible class at 9:30 a.m.

Lesson-Sermon From Psalms

"Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy disease; who redeemeth thy life from destruction."

This text from Psalms highlights the Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" at Christian Science church services Sunday.

One of the selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy states: "As time moves on, the healing elements of pure Christianity will be fairly dealt with; they will be sought and taught, and will glow in all the gradeaur of universal goodness."

Services begin at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 186 W. Highland Ave.

Guest Minister At Faith Lutheran

The Rev. Harold B. Tietjen of Monterey Park will conduct the 10:30 Sunday morning worship service at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive. He is the Southern California District Executive Secretary for Missions of The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. Before his election to this position ten years ago, he served parishes in Monrovia, Culver City-Palms, and La Mirada.

The Sunday school departments, and the youth and adult Bible classes will convene at 9.

Scheduled for next week: Sunday school teachers staff meeting on Tuesday night at 7:30; Junior confirmation class for grades 7 and 8 on Wednesday afternoon at 4:15, and Senior Choir rehearsal on Thursday at 8.

The ladies of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League will meet next Thursday morning at 9:30. At 10:30, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Gerke will show slides on "The Life of Martin Luther," to which the ladies of First Lutheran and Mt. Olive Lutheran - Pasadena and of Our Savior Lutheran in Arcadia have been invited. A coffee period will follow the slide presentation.

The California State Park and Recreation Commission will hold its October meeting in Chico on October 8. The meeting will convene at 10 a.m. in the Aymar Jay Hamilton auditorium at Chico State College.

She Alpha Phi Alumnae, Pasadena Chapter, will meet Tuesday, October 19, at 12:30 p.m. for cocktails and luncheon at a restaurant in Pasadena. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Bernard Metzger, 441-2814.

It can be said of modern business leaders that some die, but few retire.

Arcadianns To Hold Fashion Show, 'Automne le Elegance', October 14

"Automne le Elegance" will be all that the name connotes — an elegant foray into the World of Fashion, the Arcadiann's fall fashion show and bridge luncheon. The party will be held at the Brookside Golf Club starting at 11 a.m. on Thursday, October 14.

Mrs. Kenneth Klippel and Mrs. Francis Kelly, co-chairmen, are being assisted by Mrs. Patricia Trower, fashion show, and Mrs. Parmer C. Ickes, tickets and reservations. Mrs. James E. Daly and Mrs. Matt S. Hughes promise an alluring array of door prizes and table favors. Bridge will be the forte of Mrs. Arleigh Helfer and tickets for the drawing are in charge of Mrs. Charles F. Bailey.

The artistic talents of Mrs. Paul Wendt will be reflected in the table decorations. Helping her with this project were: Mrs. Maxwell Sholes, Mrs. Wilbur Kuhns, Mrs. Robert Harbur, Mrs. Don S. Slater, Mrs. Ralph Long, Mrs. Lloyd Arnoldy, Mrs. D. E. Bodenschatz, Mrs. Kenneth Klippel, and Mrs. Francis Kelly.

The fashion show, directed by Mrs. Trower, will feature 'What's New' from Gullett and Harris, Sierra Madre. With Mrs. Leonard Fullmer, Jr., at the piano to provide just the right background music, styles to take milady from early morning through the cocktail hour, will be paraded by club members: Mrs. Ralph Pancoast, Mrs. Dewey Manning, Mrs. Clayton Stanley, Mrs. Charles Neuberg, Mrs. Herbert R. Sawtelle, and Mrs. Patricia Tower. Hair styles for the models will be by a nearby salon, and makeup by Jil Patkin. The fashion commentator will be Marilyn Pursley of Gullett and Harris.

According to Mrs. D. E. Bodenschatz, Philanthropy Section chairman, proceeds will benefit the club's many projects including the San Gabriel Valley Training Center, Eye Dog Foundation, and Le Roy's Boys' Home.

Reservation deadline is October 4 according to Mrs. Ickes, 446-1113. For non-card players, conversation tables are being arranged.

'Mind Pollution' Is Speaker Topic

Raymond P. Gauer, National Director of Citizens for Decent Literature, will be the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the East Pasadena-Sierra Madre Republican Women's Club, Federated, on Thursday, October 7, at 10 a.m. The meeting will be held in the Terrace Room of the Altadena Town and Country Club.

Mr. Gauer's talk is entitled, "Solution to the Pollution of the Mind." He is the past chairman of the Los Angeles County Commission on Obscenity and Pornography.

Mrs. George Vreeland, prsident, invites all women who are concerned with the plethora of smut in our society to attend. Luncheon reservations must be made no later than October 6 by calling 795-6419 or 792-9732.

Helen Peterson, Toyrarian, is still on her tour of the British Isles. She is presently in Scotland and fortunately for Mrs. Peterson and her sister, who is accompanying her, the weather has been extremely beautiful. At this writing they should have completed traveling through Scotland along all the "Lochs."

Wish we could be there, too — sounds like a beautiful country.

The People Must Know

By Howard Jarvis
State Chairman, United Organization of Taxpayers

In checking the amount of school tax money that the Los Angeles Unified School District spends per year per pupil, I find that the District claims it is $842, but when you divide the total budget of $813 million dollars by the number of pupils in average daily attendance you find that the figure is $1,162 per pupil. But in addition to the $813 million the Los Angeles District gets another $25 or more million a year from the Federal government.

Why the school district figures call it $842 per pupil per year is a mystery to me, as this difference amounts to $200 million tax dollars per year.

If this $200 million does not go for the education of the school children, I would like to know what it does go for. I also wonder if all the school districts in the state use the same figure ratio for publication as the Los Angeles District, because if they do it could amount to well over a billion dollars in tax money paid in by property owners.

It would be interesting to inquire of every school district in the state just what their highest legal taxing rate is, and how much they have gone above it. For instance the Los Angeles Unified School District maximum legal rate is $2.72 per each hundred dollars of property assessment, but they are collecting over $5 per hundred because of special assessments they levy with no vote of the people.

On October 12 there will be a bond election in the Los Angeles school district for the amount of $198.5 million which is claimed required to repair earthquake damage and to rebuild school buildings required by 1975 under the Field Act. According to the district, the actual damage to the schools from the earthquake amounted to $23.5 million dollars.

A $198.5 million bond issue at six per cent interest for 25 years amounts to $400 million dollars of added mortgage debt on the property owners in the district. Property owners alone, are responsible for this debt and must pay both the interest and the bonds off.

Most property owners will have to pay this debt each and every year the rest of their lives. It increases the bond debt of the district about 33 per cent in one single year.

Of course every one who really wants their new mortgage on their property and this amount added to their taxes should rush to the polls and vote yes. However the bond mortgages already on all people's property in Californa is already 50 per cent more than the total assessed value of their property. Those who want lower taxes should vote no.

Better Do It Ourselves!

If California goes to a state property tax, the Board of Equalization wants to make certain that the state tax is equitably apportioned among the counties.

In letters to leaders of the State Assembly and Senate, September 21, the Board, over the signature of executive secretary H. F. Freeman, urged that the Legislature consider a constitutional amendment that would assure tax equalization.

The Board would accomplish this by measuring each year "the relationship in each county between the total locally assessed value of property subject to general property taxation and the total full value of such property on the current lien date" (March 1), and then use this relationship to equalize the state tax by "varying its rate from county to county to offset diffeernces in assessment levels."

In other words, provide for a nigher state tax rate in a county with a low assessment level, and lower state tax rate in a county with a high assessment level.

In letters to Speaker Bob Moretti and Senate President Pro Tem James Mills, the Board acknowledged that the recent Supreme Court decision in the Serrano vs. Priest case "makes a state property tax appear more imminent . . . ."

The letter noted that the Board "has endorsed the use of this tax for school finance if coupled with assurance that the state tax will replace local property taxes, not be piled upon them, and with adequate safeguards against varying degrees of underassessment by the counties."

The Board recognizes that there always will be differences in assessment levels even when all assessors apply the same 25 per cent ratio to their appraised values, for a variety of reasons: Every county has some outdated appraised values, but in differing numbers and degrees, since property values change more in some areas than elsewhere and some assessors reapparise all property every three years, while others take up to ten years to reappraise all property; some assessors have only enough staff or enough funds, to audit the very large property accounts, while other audit small accounts as well.

Currently there is no constitutional authority for the Board's proposed method of counteracting the effects of differences in local assessment levels, and for this reason the Board is urging an amendment of Section 29, Article XIII of the California Constitution.

Grassroots Opinion

BENTON, MO., SCOTT COUNTY DEMOCRAT: "There is far more danger in public monopoly than private monopoly. When government goes into business, it can always shift the losses to the taxpayers. If it goes into (the) electric power business, it can always cover up its losses. The government never really goes into busisnss, for it never makes ends meet, and that's the first requirement of business. It just mixes a little business with politics and nobody ever gets a chance to find out what is actually going on."

EPHRATA, PA., REVIEW: "The annual style derby for U.S. automobiles may be coming to an end. Uniquely American, this system has meant extensive changes, or massive advertising campaigns to convey that impression, every model year. For many years the style derby has reached its debut climax in September and October when new models have been closely guarded secrets and curiosity about how each new car would look has been considrable. Now, however, the high cost of these yearly changes, which often add nothing to the car's safety or mechanical merit, may be ending. In a letter to Ford stockholders the top officers of that company . . . notified recipients that 'in future years we plan to change . . . design less frequently and less extensively.' If this will enable makers to concentrate on practical safety and mechanical improvments, the change is welcome — and overdue."

SENSING THE NEWS

AROUND THE U. S. CAPITOL

Gov. Ronald Reagan of California supplied the essential background to the bloody riot at Attica prison in New York when he said that revolutionary forces in the United States have shifted their attack from university campuses to prisons. Having been largely thwarted in their attempt to turn university campuses into bases of revolutionary action, the New Left now is depending on a savage prison population to trigger enormous violence and undermine the official and public will to maintain law and order.

First major outbreak of revolutionary violence came last month at San Quentin prison in California, where a weapon was smuggled to George Jackson, one of the infamous "Soledad Brothers," criminal revolutionaries. Jackson's death in the escape attempt served the revolutionary forces, for they have turned him into a martyr of the New Left. Tom Wicker, the New York Times columnist eulogized Jackson as "a talented writer, a sensitive man, a potential leader, and political thinker of great persuasiveness."

The second outbreak came at Attica prison in upstate New York. New York officials have suggested that the prisoners received aid from the outside in organizing their reign of terror. Fortunately, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller finally ordered an assault on the prison, but only after long delay and disgraceful negotiations with revolutionary prisoners who demanded amnesty and transportation to "non-imperialist" countries.

One of the most astonishing developments in the Attica story is that New York officials permitted so-called "citizen observers," to confer with the inmates. This cadre of "observers" included hard-core radicals such as William Kunstler, the attorney for communist revolutionaries; leftwing congressman Herman Badillo, Ali Kenyatta of the Black Muslims, Tom Wicker of the New York Times, whose eulogy of George Jackson apparently won him the admiration of the militant prisoners at Attica; and others of that ilk.

It is hard to imagine what New York authorities had in mind when they allowed this radical group to meet with the prisoners. It seems safe to say that he "observers" encouraged the militancy of the inmates.

What was predictable in the situation was that the radical-liberal elements in the media would convict the State of New York, state police, guards and surrounding community of guilt — and downplay the violence of the prisoners. The Washington Post, in a typical example of radical-liberal coverage, side Attica Walls, A City of headlined one story: "Out-

Apartment Owners Endorsement

A giant boost was given the Jarvis 1 per cent tax initiative today when it received the unanimous endorsement of the California Apartment Owners Association.

The action was taken at the state convention of the organization held at the Los Angeles International Hotel.

CAOA, formed in 1928, lists a membership of 80,000 in 24 regional groups scattered throughout the state.

The initiative proposal limits the property tax to 1 per cent of the market value, and also withdraws tax privileges from all of California's 66,000 tax-exempt foundations and 18,000 charitable trusts.

Howard Jarvis, Los Angeles tax expert and author of the initiative, reveals that "the amount of tax money to be derived from these groups alone should almost equal the loss in property tax receipts under the present system."

In titling the amendment, Attorney General Evelle Younger, with the advice of State Finance Director Vern Orr and State Budget Analyst H. Allen Post, stated in event the Jarvis initiative is adopted only $30 million in additional money would be required from other sources. "This is less than one-half of one per cent of the present state budget," Jarvis averred.

The United Organizations of Taxpayers, sponsoring the state-wide initiative, has until October 31 to obtain the required 525,000 signatures to place the measure on next June's primary ballot.

It has an additional 40-days to obtain more names should the number fall short by the deadline date.

Rho Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, 39th Birthday

In honor of its 39th birthday, Rho Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi will hold a formal dinner celebration, Thursday, September 30. In addition to chapter members, Mrs. Robert Gamble of Pasadena, will guest this occasion.

Additional highlights of the evening will be the impressive ritual ceremonies to be conducted by the president, Miss Ja'Niece Anderson of Los Angeles. In the traditional candlelight ceremony, the Ritual of Jewels will be received by Mrs. Paul Sulli, Sierra Madre and Mrs. Ron Ostermeier, Arcadia. The Ritual of Affirmation will be received by Mrs. James Mattiazzi, Altadena and the Ritual of Transfer will be received by Mrs. Richard Thomas, Sierra Madre. Each participant in the Ritual will receive the traditional yellow rose.. On this same evening, Mrs. Robert Dixon, Arcadia, will be installed as Chapter recording secretary.

Arrangements for the evening were under the supervision of Mrs. James Lamb, vice president, and Mrs. Fred Kelly, social chairman.

Beta Sigma Phi is an international organization founded in 1931 in Abilene, Kansas. There are over a quarter million active members in approximately 10,000 chapters. Rho Chapter is a Ritual of Jewels Degree chapter, chartered in 1932.

Drug Abuse And Minority Groups

Part Two

For Chicanos and Asian-Americans, the drug scene can be as different as tamales and tempura.

Contrasting the ghetto with affluent suburbia, some narcotics addiction patterns are as distinct as black and white.

One element — a feeling of estrangement as "second class citizens" — seems to be implicated in drug abuse by members of different minority groups.

Nevertheless, there are many common denominators of addiction, regardless of race, culture and social status.

Such are the conclusions of a recent seminar at the Universit yof Southern California School of Social Work which examined "Drug Abuse Among Adolescents and Young Adults: Socio-Ethnic Considerations."

Participants in the discussions included representatives of the Black, Mexican-American, Asian-American, and American Indian communities.

Prof. John G. Milner of the USC School of Social Work, who conducted the sessions in association with Mrs. Marguerite Phillips, also of the faculty, enumerated for a USC interviewer several areas of agreement by all minority group participants:

There is no one reason why individuals start using drugs. There is no characteristic-user personality. There is no inevitable outcome; that is, some of those most severely addicted seem to have the best chance of being rehabilitated. There is no single pattern in which a drug habit progresses, nor is there any single treatment that is best.

Each minoriy group feels that addicts have the best chance to be helped toward withdrawal by persons of their own race in local, community-based facilities.

Most feel that the anti-drug literature and propaganda issued by the government and police agencies to a large extent is filled with myths instead of facts and may be doing more harm than good. They said most of the information shows a ninsensitivity to the drug problem and puts considerable stress on the dangers of drug-taking. The fact is, they agreed, that to a youngster who is seeking an exciting experience, the danger element makes the prospect of drug-taking all the more attractive.

Another common thread is the increasing turn to religion by addicts themselves to help handle their withdrawal from drugs.

The addict is the victim of a crushing loneliness and alienation from "straight" society. Rehabilitation is best served when the addict is able to make new friendships during the period of withdrawal. He can be helped most when parents and other family members stand behind him during rehabilitation.

Arrests and incarceration are no solutions to the drug problem.

Most feel that if society were really committed to eliminating the drug problem, it could be done to a major degree by moving in on "big business," particularly the pharmaceutical manufacturers.

A devastating problem at present is the small number of available rehabilitation facilities and services. When an addict is ready to quit, he needs help immediately. If he is placed on a long waiting list, as is commonly the case, the right psychological moment might be lost, and so perhaps, is his withdrawal.

USC's Milner says these points of agreement by the minority group participants also apply to members of the white middle class majority community who turn to drugs.

New Graham Film At Bethany Church

The latest Billy Graham film, Lost Generation, features special appearances by Art Linkletter and "Dragnet" star Jack Webb.

Linkletter, whose daughter Diane died as the result of the use of drugs, discusses drug usage in America, and points to what is being done voluntarily by many teenagers to combat the problem. Webb states his views on the role of the police officer and his relationship to the laws of our society.

Lost Generation, filmed in Eastmancolor by World Wide Pictures, is a probing documentary which takes a close look at the attitudes and morals of the Nation. Location filming was done in Alaska, the Southern states, on the farms and in the small towns of mid-America, and in the dying Haight-Ashbury hippie district of San Francisco.

Lost Generation will be shown on Sunday, October 10, at Bethany Church, 93 N. Baldwin, Sierra Madre. There will be no admission charge for the 6:00 p.m. showing. Reverend Robert Vander Zaag, pastor of the church, extends a cordial invitation to the public.

What Happens After Freeze

Two business and economic experts will answer the question "What Happens After the Freeze" during a special meeting at the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, Wednesday, September 29.

Dr. Harry R. Beiderman, senior economic analyst for the Lockheed Aircraft Corpoartion, and Daniel Mitchell, professor of the UCLA Graduate School of Management, will speak during a noon luncheon in the chamber building, 404 S. Bixel St.

"The speakers we have assembled will present up-to-date information and views as to what they expect Phase II of President Nixon's economic plan to be," said Dr. Robert R. Dockson, chairman of the chamber's Research Committee.

Biederman has participated in a number of top-level sessions with business leaders and economists who are studying the consequences of the various policies which could be implemented after November 15.

Mitchell will represent the combined thinking of the UCLA Graduate School of Management as well as his own views.

Reservations must be made by calling the chamber's Research Department at 482-4010.

More than 1,000 women from all parts of California will gather at the Fresno Convention Center when members of the California Federation of Republican Women hold their 17th biennial convention on Wednesday and Thursday, October 13 and 14.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

We sincerely appreciate those wonderful people in Sierra Madre for running advertisements and getting petitions signed to put the Jarvis tax control amendment on the ballot.

It is from dedicated citizens like these that we will be able to succeed and by so doing accomplish more good for more people in California than has ever been done before.

Camping Trip For Girl Scouts

Sierra Madre Service Unit of the Girl Scouts will participate in a weekend of camping, October 8-11, at River Glen. This is an accredited camp member of the American Camping Association and is located in the beautiful San Bernardino Mountains, on the Santa Ana River, near Barton Flats.

There will be two junior troops (elementary grades), one Cadette (seventh - eighth - ninth grades) and some Senior Scout representatives, plus adult leader attendance.

You and Your Neighbors

by NANCY BRYAN

Carl and Sue Sidle had an anniverscary last month (September 1st) and we somehow failed to wish a very nice couple the best of congratulations. Also in the same month, Carl had a birthday on September 25th, so we'd best throw in some happy birthday greetings too. The Sidles who have lived here about 12 years now, are very active in community affairs.

Happy birthday to Mrs. Robert (Yvonne) Osti, whose birthday was Tuesday, September 21st. Her daughter, Cheryl Heimbruch, baked her a cake and prepared the entire birthday dinner. Those at the family birthday party were the honoree, Yvonne, her husband Bob; their son, Butch; their daughter and son-in-law, Cheryl and John Heimbruch; and their grandchildren, Matthew Heimbruch (almost 2) and Heidi Heather Heimbruch (one month old.)

The Ostis have another grandchild, Cheri Ann, daughter of their daughter and son-in-law, Susan and Dick Andrews of Reno, Nevada. Unfortunately, the Andrews could not make a trip down at this time to be present for the birthday party. Really doesn't seem possible that some one as young as Yvonne (and Bob) can have three grandchildren!

John and Bess Pappas and their three children, Teddy (10), Nicky (7½) and Valerie (1), just returned, in time for starting of school, from a month's' vacation in beautiful Balboa. Bess's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Coutroulis of Chicago, spent a week with the family while they were in Balboa.

Mr. Linus Pakulski added another year on to his age as of September 22nd. Our best birthday wishes to him. He, and his wife, very recently celebrated two other very important occasions — their 7th wedding anniversary (August 29) and the birth of their first child, Kraig Anthony (August 10).

Looks like it has been a very good year for the Pakulskis.

CARROT TOP

this past week and we were really surprised and amazed at some of the things that he had to tell us. And most probably he told a good many in his district all about it.

— CT —

As close as I can figure the National Debt at this time is somewhere around $399-billion, and of course this is so much money that some of us fail to be able to visualize just what it does amount to. And I for one, and I imagine that many of you have wondered the same thing, just where does the money go, or where has it gone.

— CT —

Well, Congressman Allen Smith gives you a fairly good idea where it went, most of it that is, when he lists 127 nations of the world that have received assistance from the United States on an absolutely FREE basis.

— CT —

He of course lists all the countries and the amounts that we have given to them since the year 1946 up to the present year of 1971 and the total given the 127 nations is $138½-billion, and we have borrowed that money to be able to give it away and the interest that we have paid since 1946 has been $74½-billion for a total give-away of $213-billion . . . isn't that something, out of a national debt of $399-billion we have given away $213-billion?

— CT —

It kinda makes one wonder what really happened to the rest of the 186-billion? However when one thinks of the following statement of Congressman Smith . . . "Of the 3½ billion people of the world, all but 36 million have received aid from the U. S." It is little wonder that we are not many, many more billions in debt.

— CT —

It makes you a lot more meaner and a lot more unhappy when you scan the list furnished by Congressman Smith and find such names as: USSR $186-Million; Germany $3½-Billion; Japan $3¼-Billion; Korea $10-Billion; Vietnam $15-Billion, and so on down the line, reaching and calling out names of countries that many of us have never heard of. But that is the way the people of the United States seem to be, and as Congressman Smith ends up his report he states this is "The Five Formula: Frustrating - Fanatical - Frightening - Foolish - Factual." And I guess that this about sums it up for us also, I hope, I hope, I hope.

Troop 376 To Conduct Program

Award winning patrols of Troop 376 will conduct the annual school night program for prospective Boy Scouts at Sierra Mesa School Wednesday, October 6, at 7:30 p.m.

The two patrols of the troop won first and second places for trailwise patrols at the annual camporee of the Four Canyon district last spring.

Troop backpacking trips are planned for most months of the year. Destination this month was Thousand Island Lake and Mt. Davis. July's outing found the troop climbing Mt. Dana. Other peaks climbed this year included Spanish Mountain, Mt. San Jacinto, Mt. Jean and Mt. San Gorgonio.

Thanksgiving vacation will be spent at Goldstone Deep Space Tracking station, northeast of Barstow.

Eleven year old boys and their fathers are invited to join the troop at the school night program. Scoutmaster is Bob Campbell, 355-2666 and assistant is Nolan Mackness, 355-8149.

Registration For Girls Club Open

Girls Club registration for membership and classes continues until the end of the school semester.

All girls age six through high school are eligible to take part at either 3160 E. Del Mar Boulevard or the exciting new Co-op Village Center at 1141 N. Fair Oaks, Pasadena.

Featured this season are guitar, horsemanship, modeling, puppets, magic carept, bakeshop and a Friday afternoon special called "Idea Factory."

Other classes include such basic favorites as cooking, sewing, arts, dance, music instruction, tutoring and many others.

Girls Club is a United Way agency dedicated to providing everyday building-centered services of education, recreation and guidance. Cost is very minimal and the girls and their families are encouraged to self-design and evaluate the programs.

Letters To the Editor . . . .

Dear Editor:

National Newspaper Week (Oct. 10-16) gives the Los Angeles County Heart Association an opportunity to throw bouquets to you and your staff for your excellent public service coverage throughout this past year, especially in the cardiovascular field.

In keeping pace with the changing concepts in medicine, the physician/patient relationship is beginning to break away from the traditional pattern. Medical information is now beginning to become more readily available to the reading public.

The newspaper medium plays a vitally important role in this self-education of the reader who learns of new scientific advances written in the layman's language, good heart health and diet habits, and is informed of community service programs that can be of benefit to him.

Martin D. Shickman, M.D., President
Los Angeles County Heart Association

Dear Editor:

Perhaps a few billion of the American dollars flooding Europe and Japan are the dollars the Russians printed in 1944 after Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau and the identified Communist spy, Harry Dexter White, his Under Secretary, gave Russia our U.S. money plates, special ink and paper for printing U.S. money in East Germany. It is said that approximately $8-$10 billion or more were printed. No one knows the exact amount!

This may be similar to what the British government did to the American Colonies in 1777 when it printed up and placed several million dollars in "counterfeit" Continental notes in the Colonies to debauch the Colonies' Continental currency!
